Parish News

Religious Ed. –January 11th- K-8 meet at 6:30 pm, Mass at 7:30 pm.
Matthew Kelly Book: There are still a few copies of the book “Resisting Happiness” available at the entrance of church if you have not picked yours up yet.
A message from the Archdiocese: Please pray for and support vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life. The annual Seminary Collection Appeal will be taken up at Masses on the weekend of January 8th. Please be generous in supporting this appeal, as costs to educate our seminarians is more than $1 million per year. Our 27 future potential priests are counting on you for support as they go through formation in seminary.
Spirit Catholic Radio Launches new website for Catholic Millennials (ages 18-34) – the website is www.Benevore.net. It features a mix of high-quality content from trusted sources as well as original content, and includes articles, podcasts, videos and more. The content is curated specifically to appeal to young Catholics. The name Benevore comes from the combination of the Latin words “bene” meaning “good” and “vore” which comes from the Latin term vorare, meaning “to devour.” While the website is in its infancy, we are very encouraged by the potential it has to reach young Catholics.
There are some new and interesting programs and retreats coming up at the St. Benedict Center in Schuyler, Ne. Check them out on their website at www.StBenedictCenter.com There is also a flyer hanging up at the entrance of church.
Those giving a Poinsettia for Christmas or in memory of a loved one are: Mark and Rosalie Lamml, Dave and Jane Buckendaul, Ron and Gwen Pohlman, Ronda Siecke, (2) Pat Krutz, Dan and Beth Huss, Ernie and Gladycy Kremlacek, Dan Lueninghoener, Keith and Irene Mewis, Carol Armbruster, and (6) by the Alma Suchan and Kora Moore Families.

Question of the week- What are Sacramentals? Sacramentals are sacred signs or sacred actions in which a blessing is conferred. Examples of Sacramentals are holy water, the consecration of a bell or an organ, the blessing of a house or an automobile, the blessing of throats on the feast of St. Blaise, receiving ashes on Ash Wednesday, palm branches on Palm Sunday, the Easter Candle, and the praying of the Rosary.
