Question of the Week – Why do we fast: Before Jesus began his public life he "was led by the Spirit into the desert," where he fasted for forty days Mt 4:1. Jesus didn't fast in atonement for his sins; he was sinless. He fasted in preparation for his mission. One of the prime purposes of fasting is to help us become aware of God's presence in our lives and in the world around us. We fast to cultivate the inner life and to come to depend more on God.
