Question of the Week – How can we and our children get more out of Mass?

The next part of the Mass after the Penitential Act is the Gloria. The Gloria is an ancient hymn that praises God. Our earthly relationships have become very transactional (giving something, but then wanting something in return). We tend to speak to people only when we want something, or if they have done something wrong. This “transactional” way of thinking has overflowed into our spiritual lives, and as a result the practice of praising God has fallen to the wayside. Try this: Set yourself and your life aside for a moment, and praise God for something specific. Praise God for his goodness! Praise God for Creation! Praise God for his wisdom!
