How To Offer a Mass Intention

Did you ever notice that every Mass said here at St. Alphonsus is offered for a special intention? The entire congregation prays for that intention during the petitions (Prayers of the Faithful) when we say, "For those who have died, and for the intention of this Mass: (named intention)"

Masses are often offered for family, friends and relatives that have died. Praying for the dead is a Spiritual Work of Mercy. Offering a Mass for someone that has died is an especially comforting gesture to the family. Mass can also be offered to commemorate joyful occasions and to give thanks to God for blessings received.

The customary offering for a Mass here is $15. However, any amount that you would like to offer is completely acceptable. You can request Masses by visiting the Parish Office during office hours or calling the Parish Office at 773-525-0709.

Recent Statements of Cardinal Cupich

My Dear Parishioners:

Cardinal Blasé Cupich, our Archbishop, has issued two statements this week that I feel are important to share with you. Both, I believe, are available on the Archdiocesan website. The first statement, issued August 26, 2018, concerns the statement of former Papal Nuncio to the United States, Archbishop Carlo Maria Vigano. The second statement follows an interview given by the Cardinal to Mary Ann Ahern of NBC News.

I ask you to prayerfully consider the Cardinal's words. I also ask you to pray for both the unity and the healing of the Church. Pray also for the healing of victims of any form of abuse. This week, several of our parishioners will dedicate this coming Wednesday, September 5, as a Day of Fast and Prayer for Healing. Please consider observing the Fast regulations we embrace on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Abstain from meat, eat only one full meal, with two smaller meals for sustenance. Join us for Mass at 8:30 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. Pray with us during Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament following the 6:00 p.m. Mass.

In Christ,

Fr. Mike O'Connell

Pastor

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Statement of Cardinal Blasé J. Cupich in Response to the "Testimony" of Former Apostolic Nuncio to the United States Carlo Maria Vigano

August 26, 2018

The former nuncio makes a number of references to me in his "testimony." The first is in the sentence: "This is how one explains that, as members of the Congregation for Bishops, the Pope replaced Cardinal Burke with Wuerl and immediately appointed Cupich right after he was made a cardinal."

The former nuncio is confused about the sequence of these events. In fact, I was appointed to the Congregation for Bishops on July 7, 2016, and was named a cardinal on October 9, 2016.

The second reference to me is in the sentence: "The appointments of Blasé Cupich to Chicago and Joseph W. Tobin to Newark were orchestrated by McCarrick, Maradiaga and Wuerl, united by a wicked pact of abuses by the first, and at least of coverup of abuses by the other two. Their names were not among those presented by the Nunciature for Chicago and Newark."

I consider these remarks astonishing. The only substantial conversation I have ever had about my appointment to Chicago with the former nuncio was on September 11, 2014, when he called to inform me of the appointment. The former nuncio started the conversation by saying: "I call with news of great joy. The Holy Father has appointed you the archbishop of Chicago." He then congratulated me upon hearing of my acceptance. That is the extent of any conversation I have ever had about this matter with the former nuncio. Moreover, the former nuncio personally participated in my installation ceremony in Chicago in November 2014 and personally presided at the imposition of the pallium the following summer, and on both occasions offered only supportive remarks and congratulations. As to the issue of my appointment to Chicago as well as the question of episcopal appointments in general. I do not know who recommended me for the Archdiocese of Chicago, but I do know that Pope Francis, like his predecessors, takes seriously the appointment of bishops as one of his major responsibilities. Pope Francis has made it clear that he wants pastoral bishops, and I work each day to live up to that expectation in collaboration with many fine lay and religious women and men, my brother priests and brother bishops. I am proud to serve the church in Chicago and I am grateful for the help I receive.

The third and fourth references to me deal with my statements on the causes of clerical sexual abuse as it relates to homosexuality. Any reference I have ever made on this subject has always been based on the conclusions of the “Causes and Context” study by the John Jay School of Criminal Justice, released in 2011, which states: “The clinical data do not support the hypothesis that priests with a homosexual identity or those who committed same-sex sexual behavior with adults are significantly more likely to sexually abuse children than those with a heterosexual orientation or behavior.” John Jay researchers came to this conclusion after reviewing many studies on the topic. Their scholarly work is not to be dismissed out of hand.

As for the rest of the “testimony,” a thorough vetting of the former nuncio’s many claims is required before any assessment of their credibility can be made.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Statement of Cardinal Blasé J. Cupich on Misleading NBC Chicago Report

August 29, 2018

An NBC Chicago TV report that aired Monday night was edited in such a way that gave the false impression that Pope Francis and I consider the protection of children to be less important than other issues, such as the environment or immigration. Nothing could be further from the truth.

A review of the unedited footage of that interview shows that I was referring to the recent letter by Archbishop Carlo Maria Vigano, not the terrible crime of clergy sexual abuse. I said that it was not appropriate, or even possible for Pope Francis to respond to the letter’s many undocumented allegations, and I endorsed his request that journalists determine their veracity.

I was then asked whether there should be an independent investigation of the Archbishop Theodore McCarrick case, and I endorsed the call of Cardinal Daniel DiNardo, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, for a thorough investigation.

The edited report created the false impression that my comment that the pope should not “go down the rabbit hole” of the allegations in the Vigano letter was about sexual abuse. As the unedited footage shows, it was not.

As I wrote in my letter responding to the Pennsylvania Grand Jury report: “Whatever words we may use to describe the anguish of reading about these heinous acts, they can never capture the reality of suffering endured by victims of sexual abuse, suffering compounded by the woeful responses of bishops who failed to protect the people they were ordained to serve...We must resolve to face our failures and hold each other accountable. We must resolve to be clear-eyed about what we have done, what we have failed to do, and what remains to be done. We must resolve to live in the light of humility, of repentance, of honesty-the light of Christ. As your bishop, I pledge to continue holding firm to that resolve. And I ask for you to pray for all victims of abuse.”

The Legacy Campaign in support of repairs and improvements around the St. Alphonsus campus will launch the weekend of October 13-14. - Campaign Host – Individuals co-host Rectory or Festival Hall events with Fr. Mike or invite fellow parishioners to their homes for informal get togethers (coffee/dessert, wine/cheese, etc.). Clergy and Leaders present information about the Legacy Campaign and facility plans, answer questions and encourage volunteer involvement.

*For Ambassadors, please select the training session you will attend.
All will be conducted in the second floor Common Room of the Rectory.*

or 773-348-4629 x125

The AACA Tots Program is designed to provide two-year-old children with an introduction to a structured learning environment that allows them to begin the transition from home to school. During the program, children are both cognitively and socially stimulated so that they begin to understand some of the basic components of school-based learning, such as transitioning smoothly from one activity to another or taking directions from an adult, other than his or her parent. Our program also provides an opportunity for children to begin to understand the dynamics of structured play while interacting with a number of other children.

Giving Update

Message from Fr. Mike about the importance of stewardship:

Stewardship is planned giving and does not leave giving to chance. It challenges us to plan. It asks us to appraise—deliberately—what we are doing with our time, our talent, and our treasure. It's easy to understand the definition of stewardship. The hard part is living it. What do you do to live God's word? Do you share your time in prayer with God? Do you use your talent to help those in need? Are you generous with your financial resources? If not, what are you waiting for?
