SENT BY GOD

In Amos' time the vocation of prophet had achieved a very formal status in Israel. The prophets had arisen, originally, to act as God's voice when Israel was no longer led by the spiritual/civil figures known as "judges," but by monarchs. Over time, the monarchy had appropriated the offices of priest and prophet, established them into companies, and reserved the right to appoint courtly prophets. Then, as now, when those in power also got to choose who would act as their official conscience, things sometimes went awry. At such times, God raised up prophets from unlikely places, and this is how Amos received his vocation as prophet. In last week's Gospel we heard how Jesus was raised up as God's anointed from a place many viewed as unlikely. As we continue to discern our own vocation as baptized disciples, we can be assured that we are, in Paul's words, "chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will" (Ephesians 1:11).

ENVIADO POR DIOS

En la época de Amós la vocación de profeta había adquirido una posición muy formal en Israel. Originalmente los profetas habían surgido como los portavoces de Dios cuando Israel ya no se veía guiado por las figuras religioso-civiles a quienes conocemos como los "Jueces", sino por los Reyes. Al correr del tiempo la monarquía de Israel se había apropiado los oficios de sacerdote y de profeta, estableciéndolos como órdenes, y reservándose el derecho de nombrar profetas oficiales para la corte real. Entonces, como ahora, cuando los que estaban en el poder escogían a los que iban a servirles de "conciencia oficial", a veces las cosas se torcían. Y entonces Dios escogía profetas de donde menos se les esperaba. Así fue como Amós recibió su llamado a profetizar. En el Evangelio del domingo pasado vimos cómo Jesús surgió como el Ungido del Señor aunque venía de un lugar que muchos consideraban poco probable. Y nosotros, cuando continuamos discerniendo nuestro propio llamado bautismal a ser discípulos, podemos estar seguros de que estamos, en las palabras de san Pablo: "destinados [para eso], por decisión del que lo hace todo según su voluntad" (Efesios 1:11).

IN HIM WE WERE CHOSEN

We return again this week to the mystery of vocation. Many of us can identify with Amos. He was thrown out of Bethel for prophesying when it wasn't even his idea to be a prophet, much less to be one in Bethel. Can't you just see him working with his flock of sheep or pruning his sycamore trees? Prophesying was the last thing he wanted to do. Yet prophesy he did, and well enough to have gotten into trouble for the things he said.

When Jesus sent the apostles out to preach and expel demons, he warned them of the possibility that some places would not receive them or hear them. We have only to read of the persecutions and imprisonments described in the Acts of the Apostles to know how accurate his prediction was. Why would anyone want to be a prophet? Why would anyone follow Jesus under such adverse circumstances? How would Amos answer? What would the Apostles say? What do those who follow Christ say amid their own challenges and persecutions today?

EN ÉL FUIMOS ELEGIDOS

Nuevamente esta semana volvemos al misterio de la vocación. Muchos nos podemos identificar con Amós. Lo echaron de Betel por profetizar cuando ni era su idea ser un profeta, mucho menos en Betel. ¿No lo puedes ver trabajando con su rebaño de ovejas o podando sus higos? Profetizar era lo último que quería hacer. Sin embargo, profetizó, y bastante bien como para meterse en problemas por las cosas que decía.

Cuando Jesús envió a los apóstoles a predicar y expulsar demonios, les advirtió que era posible que algunos lugares no los recibieran ni escucharan. Con solo leer las persecuciones y los encarcelamientos descritos en los Hechos de los Apóstoles para saber lo precisa que fue su predicción. ¿Por qué querría alguien ser profeta? ¿Qué motivaría a alguien seguir a Jesús en circunstancias tan adversas? ¿Cómo contestaría Amós? ¿Qué dirían los Apóstoles? ¿Qué dicen los seguidores de Cristo en medio de sus propios desafíos y persecuciones hoy día?

EVERY SPIRITUAL BLESSING

Perhaps Amos and the Apostles, if we could ask them, would refer us to today’s second reading. In it we find the beautiful hymn that Paul wrote in his letter to the Ephesians. It is a proclamation of praise from a man who knew well the sufferings of the Christian. He reminds us of the glory of being a Christian: We were chosen in Christ. We were sealed with the Holy Spirit. Certainly we share in his sufferings, but by his sufferings we have been redeemed. We are the adopted children of God. In Christ we have been given “every spiritual blessing in the heavens” (Ephesians 1:3).

TODA BENDICIÓN ESPIRITUAL

Tal vez Amós y los Apóstoles, si les pudiéramos preguntar, nos remitirían a la segunda lectura de hoy. En ella encontramos el hermoso himno que Pablo escribió en su carta a los efesios. Es una proclamación de alabanza proveniente de un hombre que conocía bien los sufrimientos de los cristianos. Nos recuerda la gloria de ser cristiano. Fuimos elegidos en Cristo. Fuimos marcados con el Espíritu Santo. Ciertamente participamos de sus sufrimientos, pero por sus sufrimientos hemos sido redimidos. Somos los hijos adoptivos de Dios. En Cristo, hemos sido bendecidos “con toda clase de bienes espirituales y celestiales” (Efesios 1:3).

GOD’S WORD TODAY

Today we hear three stories about people being chosen by God: Amos the prophet, the Twelve, and all those who are baptized into Christ—which means us! So often when we think about people such as prophets and apostles who were chosen by God to fulfill a special task, we think about old bearded men who seem so far off and remote. Yet these were people like us, who chose to respond to God’s call within the context of their everyday lives. Perhaps today’s scriptures are inviting us to remember the call that was issued by God at the moment of our baptism. Listen to the words of Saint Paul in today’s second reading to discover just what that call entails. Our world is still in desperate need of prophets and apostles. Peace and justice seem so elusive in our time. Perhaps today’s word of God will inspire us to respond to God’s call to bring the gospel of salvation to those we meet in our everyday lives.

LA PALABRA DE DIOS HOY

Hoy escuchamos tres historias acerca de personas que fueron escogidas por Dios: Amós el profeta, los Doce y todos los que han sido bautizados en Cristo, o sea ¡nosotros! Con frecuencia pensamos que los profetas y apóstoles que fueron escogidos por Dios para una tarea especial eran hombres viejos y barbudos que nos parecen muy remotos. Sin embargo, éstas fueron personas como nosotros, que decidieron responder al llamado de Dios dentro del contexto de su vida cotidiana. Tal vez las Escrituras de hoy nos invitan a recordar el llamado que nos hizo Dios en el momento de nuestro bautismo. Escuchemos las palabras de san Pablo en la segunda lectura de hoy para descubrir lo que ese llamado conlleva. Nuestro mundo aún está desesperadamente necesitado de profetas y apóstoles. La paz y la justicia parecen tan elusivas en nuestra época. Quizás la palabra de Dios hoy nos inspire a responder al llamado de Dios de llevar el Evangelio de la salvación a aquellos que encontramos diariamente en el camino de nuestra vida.
