Today's readings look back at both the Crucifixion and the Resurrection, remembering the promise given to David that Jesus would be raised from the dead. The Psalm and First Peter look forward to our lives as we await our resurrection and consider the sacrifice made by Jesus. Luke tells us the story of another experience of the risen Jesus. The disciples unknowingly walk with Jesus and tell him of the Crucifixion and the Resurrection. Jesus himself looks back with them to the promises made to Moses and all the prophets about his death and resurrection. Still they do not know who he is. It is only when he blesses and breaks bread and shares it with them that they realize it is Jesus. Then they race back to Jerusalem to tell the others.

IN THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Despite all the hints, the disciples do not recognize Jesus. They remain consumed with their own confusion and fear and they cannot see who is right in front of them. It is only with the blessing, breaking, and sharing of the bread that they suddenly recognize Jesus. No words, however insightful, can penetrate the confusion and fear the disciples feel. Through the simple act of breaking and blessing bread they recognize Jesus. Even as their "hearts were burning," their minds did not know. How often do we not see what is right before us because we are so consumed with our own worries, regrets, concerns? Like the disciples it takes an action like the breaking of the bread, a reminder of the death of Jesus, his sacrifice, to get us to understand what our hearts already know.

DUROS DE CORAZÓN

Después de la crucifixión y resurrección, dos de los discípulos iban andando por un camino intentando escapar de la incertidumbre, miedo, remordimiento y culpa que abrigaban. Ellos sentían el mismo lamento de los discípulos que se mencionan en los Hechos y en la primera carta de Pedro. Ellos encontraron a un hombre viajando por el mismo camino y quedaron sorprendidos cuando se dieron cuenta que él no parecía conocer acerca de los acontecimientos de los que venían hablando entre ellos. Estos eventos los estaban consumiendo, les había roto sus corazones, dejado cabizbajos y cegado a la misma persona que se les unía en su camino. Su compañero, Jesús, los lleva hacia un recuento de su tradición, a través de la promesa del Antiguo Testamento que alguien como él vendría, sería asesinado y resucitaría de la muerte. Sin embargo, ellos no lo reconocen solo por sus palabras, no quieren que se vaya. Afortunadamente para ellos, él se queda.
