ACCEPTED

The woman's faith is irresistible--to Jesus, and to us. Jesus grants her heart's desire, healing her daughter from that very moment. We too are won over by her indomitable confidence in the Lord. Truly, this woman is one of the heroes of the New Testament. When difficulties suffocate us and we feel turned away like a stray dog, we can recall the Canaanite woman's simple words: "Lord, help me."

A GOOD PRAYER

A good prayer, though often used, is still fresh and fair in the eyes and ears of heaven.

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

All of us who ache to be accepted find lavish comfort in today's readings. Rich in mercy, the Lord welcomes all of us --no exceptions. Isaiah extends God's invitation to all nations, even to foreigners who often arouse suspicion from the "in crowd." Saint Paul takes advantage of these fearful suspicions by provoking the Israelites' jealousy: if even Gentiles can offer acceptable worship to the one true God, then God's chosen people should surely do the same. In a similar way, Jesus provokes his disciples in today's Gospel from Matthew. Bantering with a Canaanite woman, Jesus draws out her tremendous faith, which endures despite the typical rejection she faces from scornful Israelites. Whether we identify more with the privileged disciples or the marginalized Canaanite woman, we cannot mistake God's universal invitation to believe in the One who saves us.

REJECTED

At one time or another, we have all been rejected or ridiculed, left out of a conversation, or not invited to a party. It hurts to be excluded. God makes all things new, though, and our scriptures today invite us to turn over our aching hearts to the Lord. Some of us might feel reluctant to give our hearts to the Lord, especially if our suffering somehow involves God or the Church. Why pour out hearts to God, after all, if God seems to be the cause of our troubles? A tragic loss, a painful death, or an unavoidable catastrophe can disrupt or destroy our life plans. When people clumsily console us then, saying, "It's God's will," we can easily become suspicious of God and the almighty will. If we suffer from the sinful structures or actions of God's representatives and ministers in the Church, we might look with skepticism at the prayers of that same Church.

Even so, our Canaanite woman today persuades us not to lose hope. The disciples scorn her, complaining that she "keeps calling" out for help. Like irritable children, the disciples ask Jesus to "send her away." And just when we might expect Jesus to take her side, to scold the disciples and reward the woman's persistence, he shocks us by implying she is a dog. Undaunted, the woman accepts Jesus' remark and parlays its aggression into her own forceful plea: "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters."

RECHAZADA

Ya sea una u otra vez, hemos experimentado el rechazo o el ridículo, haber sido ignorado en alguna conversación o no nos han invitado a algún festejo o fiesta. Duele ser excluido. Dios hace todas las cosas nuevas; sin embargo, las Escrituras hoy nos invitan a volver al Señor nuestros corazones lastimados. Algunos de nosotros podemos sentirnos de mala gana dar nuestros corazones al Señor, especialmente si nuestro sufrimiento puede involucrar a Dios o a la Iglesia. ¿Por qué derramar nuestro corazón a Dios, después de todo, si Dios parece ser la causa de nuestros problemas? Una trágica pérdida, una muerte orosa, una catástrofe inevitable puede interrumpir o destruir nuestros planes de vida. Cuando las personas torpemente nos consuelan diciendo: "es la voluntad de Dios", podemos fácilmente desconfiar de Dios y de su voluntad. Si sufrimos de las acciones pecaminosas de los representantes de Dios y ministros de la Iglesia, podemos ver con escepticismo las oraciones de la Iglesia. Más aún, la mujer cananita de hoy nos persuade a no perder la fe. Los discípulos la hacen sentir menos, quejándose que ella "sigue pidiendo" ayuda. Como niños irritables, los discípulos piden a Jesús que "la eche". Y cuando podemos esperar que Jesús esté de lado de ella, que haga sentir menos a los discípulos y recompense la persistencia de la mujer, él simplemente nos deja perplejos implicando que ella es como un perrito. Impávidamente la mujer acepta las palabras de Jesús y aumenta esa agresión hacia ella con una petición más fuerte: "pero también los perritos se comen las migajas que caen de la mesa de sus amos".
