Be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding. Luke 12:35

August 7, 2016

Jubilee Year of Mercy August 7, 2016

Last Sunday's "Parable of the rich fool" delivered a compelling reason to do the right thing—now: "You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you" (Luke 12:20). Today, Jesus warns us: "You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come" (12:40). Though we do not know when our Master will come, we do know what our Master expects to find. Jesus expects us to be vigilant (12:37) and diligent (12:42) in our work for the kingdom, but also filled with reverent mercy toward our fellow servants and ourselves. Hopefully, Jesus' warning not to get drunk and beat each other up (12:45) does not apply to us literally! But what changes do I need to make, right now, so that the many people outside "the Master's house" will want to come inside to experience the healing comfort of Jesus' own mercy in the compassion of Jesus' modern-day disciples?

Our Father in Faith

The Letter to the Hebrews today sings a hymn of praise to Abraham and to his faith, upon which are founded the religions of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. Abraham is called "father" in faith by more people on earth than anybody else, numerous as the sands of the seashore or the stars of the heavens. Hebrews tells us it was this foundational faith that led Abraham to obey God's call when he heard it, though he was called to journey to a land he did not know and told he would father a mighty race through a marriage he thought was barren. But Abraham's faith, the author of Hebrews tells us, was his realization of what he hoped for, and the evidence of what he could not see. How often are we, in simple daily events of our own Christian vocation, called to an unfamiliar place or told we are to do something we do not believe we can? How fortunate we are to have Father Abraham as our guide and example!

Nuestro Padre en la Fe

La Carta a los Hebreos hoy canta un himno de alabanza a Abraham y a su fe, sobre la que se fundó la religión del Judaísmo, el Cristianismo y el Islam. Abraham es llamado "padre" en la fe por más gente en la tierra que cualquier otro, numerosos como las arenas de la orilla del mar o las estrellas del cielo. Hebreos nos dice que fue esta fe fundamental que hizo a Abraham obedecer el llamado de Dios, a pesar de que fue llamado para viajar a una tierra desconocida y se le dijo sería el padre de una raza poderosa a través de un matrimonio que pensaba era estéril. Pero la fe de Abraham, nos dice el autor de Hebreos fue la realización de lo que el esperó y la evidencia de lo que no podía ver. ¿Con qué frecuencia en los eventos simples de nuestra vocación cristiana somos llamados diariamente a un lugar desconocido o tenemos que hacer algo que creemos no poder? Qué afortunados somos de tener padre Abraham como nuestro guía y ejemplo!

Año Jubilar de la Misericordia

En la parábola del domingo pasado del "Rico Insensato" escuchamos una razón de peso hacer lo que es correcto aquí y ahora '¡Insensato! Esta misma noche vas a morir' (Lucas 12:20). Hoy Jesús nos advierte "estén preparados, porque a la hora en que menos lo piensen vendrá el Hijo del hombre" (12:40). Aunque no sabemos cuando nuestro Maestro vendrá, lo que sí sabemos es lo que nuestro Maestro espera encontrar. Jesús espera que estemos vigilantes (12:37) y diligentes (12:42) en nuestro trabajo por el Reino, pero también llenos con misericordia reverente hacia nuestros prójimos y hacia nosotros mismos. Con confianza, la advertencia de Jesús de no beber y maltratar a los demás (12:45) no parece que se siga fielmente. Pero ahora qué cambios debo hacer para que las personas fuera de "la casa del amo" quieran entrar y sentir el consuelo de la de la misericordia sanadora de Jesús en la compasión de los discípulos de Jesús hoy en día.
