OUR CATHOLIC APPEAL

We are now at 90% of our 2018 goal. With a small sacrifice from each family in St. Jude, we will reach the goal soon! Please prayerfully consider to share your blessings by making a donation of any amount today. There are envelopes available in the Parish foyer. You may also make an electronic donation at:
www.cfocf.org/OCA/give
 A big THANK YOU to all the families who have already so kindly contributed!

MUSICIAN NEEDED

St. Jude is in need of a musician for our weekend English Masses. This is a permanent opportunity for a person who plays the keyboard and can play traditional as well as contemporary music. The person must also be flexible to play with others, if needed. Please call the parish office if interested.

Sacramental classes begin on August 22nd!

Parent Orientation will be held this same day.

You can still register your children during office hours.

Cost: $30.00 for one; $55.00 for two or more

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wisdom is often identified with Christ and with the Holy Spirit. Both are present in today's readings, one as a metaphor, the other as a doctrine. "To the one who lacks understanding, [Wisdom] says, Come, eat of my food, and drink of the wine I have mixed!" She urges us, "Forsake foolishness that you may live; advance in the way of understanding."

Jesus urges us to be united with him in an intimate way in his flesh and blood in the Eucharist. We are blessed with the quality of wisdom, if only we recognize this and welcome our Lord into our hearts.

19 de agosto de 2018 • Vigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

La sabiduría a menudo se le identifica con Cristo y con el Espíritu Santo. Ambos están presentes en las lecturas de hoy, uno como metáfora y otro como doctrina. "Aquel que le falte juicio (sabiduría), vengan, aliméntense con mi comida, y beban del vino que he preparado". Ella nos recuerda, "Abandona la insensatez para que vivas, avanza en el camino de la sabiduría".

Jesús nos recuerda a estar unidos con él de una forma íntima con su Cuerpo y Sangre en la Eucaristía. Estamos bendecidos con el don de la sabiduría, si solo reconocemos esto y aceptamos a nuestro Señor en nuestro corazón.

WELCOME ME AND LIVE

"How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" In those days, before our understanding of the Eucharist, before the Last Supper when Jesus offered himself to his disciples in the bread and wine, this may have been a reasonable theological question, as well as a logical one. They did not understand. They did not have the wisdom to see the metaphor, or to know that further understanding would be forthcoming.

But to those who were open to Jesus' words, the bread of life was offered and accepted as the way to life eternal. They may not have understood that Jesus was speaking of eternal life, not our physical life on Earth, that would be given forever, but they were captivated by the metaphor and believed. "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life." It is possible to be puzzled and still believe.

So what does this mean for us today? Wisdom is something we sorely need in our world, and it is one of the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Partaking of the Body and Blood of the Lord is to gain wisdom as well as eternal life, to participate in the life of God, the Trinity, and of each other in love and caring. We must abandon our foolish ways and believe.

Today's Readings: Prv 9:1-6; Ps 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7; Eph 5:15-20; Jn 6:51-58

RECIBEME Y VIVE

"¿Cómo puede este hombre darnos de comer de su carne? En aquellos días, antes de comprender el significado de la Eucaristía, antes de la Última Cena cuando Jesús se ofreció él mismo a sus discípulos en el pan y el vino, esto pudo haber sido una pregunta teológica razonable, y también lógica. Ellos no entendieron. Ellos no tenían la sabiduría para ver la metáfora, o para entender el conocimiento que estaba por venir.

Pero aquellas personas que estaban abiertas a las palabras de Jesús, el pan de vida estaba ofrecido y aceptado como el camino a la vida eterna. Quizá ellos no entendieron que Jesús estaba hablando de la vida eterna, no nuestra vida terrenal, que sería dada por la eternidad, sino que estaban cautivos por la metáfora y creyeron. "Aquel que coma mi carne y beba mi sangre tendrá vida eterna". Es posible estar confundido y aun así creer.

¿Entonces, qué significa esto para nosotros hoy? La sabiduría es algo que realmente necesitamos en nuestro mundo, y es uno de los dones del Espíritu Santo. Al participar del Cuerpo y Sangre de nuestro Señor obtenemos tanto sabiduría como la vida eterna, y participamos de la vida de Dios, la Santísima Trinidad y de la otra persona con amor y cariño. Debemos dejar nuestras tonterías y creer.
