NEWS OF COMFORT

In a time of preparation, much of it having to do with material things, it is good to hear the words of Isaiah, "Comfort, give comfort to my people, / says your God" (Isaiah 40:1). In a time of such stress and rush, when our usual burdens are augmented by piles of Christmas preparations, we can choose to slow down, take some time to heal, and appreciate the enormous gift we are about to receive. Christ, the Son of God, has become one of us, and knows our human limitations. Yet God, even now, is freeing us from the burdens that our inattentiveness to our God and to our deepest inner longings have heaped upon us. The Lord comes, not as a king with mighty armies, but as a shepherd leading the flocks with care and tenderness. Isaiah prophesies good news: our oppression is over, our sins forgiven. The savior we have awaited is coming, not the first time, but in the end times, as our salvation.

MEDIR EL ÉXITO

El éxito se mide no tanto por la posición que uno ha alcanzado en la vida, sino por los obstáculos que uno ha superado luchando por obtener el éxito.

APUNTAR ALTO

Al morir por nosotros, Jesús rompe las limitaciones de la vida humana. El pecado había condenado nuestra existencia terrenal, pero entonces Jesús murió y nos dio un pase con todos los accesos a la vida eterna. San Pedro nos habla gentilmente acerca del don de Jesús. Jesús es paciente con nosotros, Pedro nos asegura que: "no quiere que nadie perezca, sino que todos se arrepientan". Sabiendo que Jesús abrió el cielo para nosotros, podemos apuntar alto cada día, esforzándonos por evitar el pecado y por hacer el bien. ¡Ni siquiera el cielo es el límite! Pedro nos anima más. No debemos temer escuchar "los cielos desaparecerán con gran estrépito, los elementos serán destruidos por el fuego", porque no estamos atrapados en un reino material. La salvación de Dios es real y unificado. Esperamos un día vivir, cuerpo y alma, "en un cielo nuevo y una tierra nueva, en que habite la justicia". Este es el plan de Dios para nosotros, un plan de una profunda y larga paz.
