CATHOLIC STEWARDSHIP FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

In today’s Gospel we hear of the coming of Emmanuel, which means “God is with us.” We celebrate three Advents: the birth of Christ, his Second Coming, and his presence in the world today. Our daily lives are attended by God’s presence.

Indeed, “God is with us.” The Good News of Christ’s Incarnation is that we are the sign, “sacrament,” of Christ’s presence in the world. People are supposed to see us, see how we love one another, see how we treat the stranger among us, give comfort to the poor and afflicted, share the Good News with joy. They see how good stewards are the light of Christ. And there can be no possible response except to say: “God is here!” catholicstewardship.org

En el Evangelio de hoy escuchamos de la venida del Emmanuel, que significa "Dios está con nosotros". Celebramos tres Advientos: el nacimiento de Cristo, su segunda venida y su presencia en el mundo hoy. Nuestra vida cotidiana contó con la presencia de Dios.

En efecto, "Dios está con nosotros." La buena noticia de Cristo encarnado es que somos el signo, "Sacramento" de Cristo presencia en el mundo. Ver cómo nos amamos uno al otro, ver cómo tratamos al extraño entre nosotros, al pobre y afligido, la buena noticia con alegría, la luz de Cristo. Y no puede haber ninguna respuesta salvo decir: "Dios está aquí!"

REFLECTION BY POPE FRANCIS

“The time of Advent that we begin again returns us to the horizon of hope, a hope that does not disappoint because it is founded on the Word of God. A hope that does not disappoint, simply because the Lord never disappoints! He is faithful!”

“One goal for each day: to convey the tenderness of Christ to those who are most in need.”

“El tiempo de Adviento que comenzamos de nuevo nos devuelve al horizonte de esperanza, una esperanza que no defrauda porque está fundada en la Palabra de Dios. ¡Una esperanza que no defrauda, simplemente porque el Señor nunca decepciona! ¡El es fiel!”

“Una meta para cada día: transmitir la ternura de Cristo a los más necesitados.”

SUMMONED BY GOD

As Christmas draws near, Advent's scriptures lure us into a world of dreams, signs, wonders, and the miracle of the virgin birth. Too often we allow the great stories of our faith, the ones that are most familiar, simply to wash over us. Today's Gospel account of the events leading up to the birth of the Lord reads like a present-day soap opera. Yet Joseph's courage, even in the midst of what must have been an incredibly confusing time, provides a model for us. Each week, we are summoned by God to embrace the way of goodness and truth through the proclamation of God's holy word. Like Joseph, we are called to do as the Lord commands us. As we stand at the threshold of Christmas, let us have the courage to be open to whatever it is that the Lord will require of us as we celebrate the miracle of Bethlehem.
