FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In this weekend's readings and psalm, the prevailing theme is that of light: We are the light of the world; our light breaks forth like the dawn; our light shines in the darkness; our light reflects generosity and justice. Good stewards know they are the lamp, and Christ is the flame that, through them, illuminates the earth. They know that they carry Christ's light in their hearts, and let it shine through their words and deeds. What are we doing to shine Christ's light on the hungry, the homeless and others most in need of God's mercy? How do we exercise good stewardship over the light of Christ that burns within each of us?

En las lecturas y en el salmo de este fin de semana, el tema que prevalece es el tema de la luz, nosotros somos la luz del mundo; nuestra luz ilumina como el amanecer; nuestra luz brilla en la oscuridad; nuestra luz refleja generosidad y justicia. Los buenos corresponsables saben que ellos son la lámpara, y que Cristo es la flama, la cual a través de ellos, ilumina la tierra. Ellos saben que llevan la luz de Cristo en sus corazones, y que la dejan brillar a través de sus palabras y obras. ¿Qué estamos haciendo nosotros para que la luz de Cristo brille sobre los hambrientos, los desamparados y aquellos con más necesidad de la misericordia de Dios? ¿Cómo ejercitamos nosotros la buena corresponsabilidad de la luz de Cristo que arde dentro de cada uno de nosotros?

CITY ON A MOUNTAIN

Often, we envision Jesus' imagery of salt and light applied to the life of individual Christians. This is indeed appropriate. However, along with "salt of the earth" and "light of the world", we hear of a "city set on a mountain." Clearly, these images are also directed to Christian communities. A parish, for example, is called to have a visible, caring presence in its local area. As salt and light, a community of faith can add its own flavor and wisdom to its surroundings.

A faith community can have its own "bushel basket," too. This might include unresolved internal conflicts, or a lack of welcoming to strangers, or just being too internally focused. These can prevent the community from demonstrating God's love. However, just as with individuals, God can lead the faithful to address these obstacles, and to become salt and light more fully for their neighborhood.

UNA CIUDAD EN UNA MONTAÑA

A menudo, podemos tener fuertes imágenes de Jesús acerca de sal y luz que se refiere a la vida de los cristianos. Esto efectivamente es apropiado. Sin embargo, junto con "sal de la tierra" y "luz del mundo", escuchamos acerca de una "ciudad construida en una montaña". Claramente, estas imágenes también están dirigidas a las comunidades cristianas. Una parroquia, por ejemplo, está llamada a tener una visible presencia de servicio en el lugar donde esté ubicada. Como sal y luz, una comunidad de fe puede añadir su propio sabor y sabiduría a sus alrededores.

Una comunidad de fe puede tener sus propios "cajones" también. Esto podría incluir conflictos internos que no han sido resueltos, o una falta de recibimiento a los extraños, o solo estar enfocada hacia sí misma. Esto puede prevenir a la comunidad de demostrar el amor de Dios. Sin embargo, así como los individuos, Dios puede guiar a los fieles a dirigir esos obstáculos, y ser sal y luz más plenamente a sus prójimos.
