CATHOLIC STEWARDSHIP

In today's second reading, Saint Paul makes a list of gifts dispensed to members of the Christian community by the Holy Spirit. Each gift bestowed has a specific purpose for the person for whom it is intended: wisdom, knowledge, faith healing, mighty deeds, prophecy, discernment, tongues, and interpretation. Good stewards know these gifts are not meant to be kept hidden by the recipient but to be shared with the community and beyond. As we begin a new year, let us reflect on the gift the Holy Spirit has given to each of us. Do we recognize this gift? How was it intended that we use this gift? Are we being good stewards of this gift?

En la segunda lectura, San Pablo hace una lista de regalos que se dispensa a los miembros de la comunidad cristiana del Espíritu Santo. Cada regalo que tiene un propósito específico para el persona por quien se pretende: sabiduría, conocimiento, sanación de fe, milagros, profecía, discernimiento, lenguas e interpretación. Buenos administradores saben que estos regalos están destinados a mantenerse ocultos por el beneficiario pero para compartir con la comunidad y más allá. Como comenzamos un nuevo año, Reflexionemos sobre el don que del Espíritu Santo ha dado a cada uno de nosotros. ¿Reconocemos este regalo? ¿Cómo pretendía que utilizamos este regalo? ¿Estamos siendo buenos administradores de este regalo? www.catholicstewardship.com

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

As we enter Ordinary Time, following the Christmas season, our readings suggest that something extraordinary is going on. In the passage from Isaiah, during the time of their exile the people of Israel are terribly confused and lost, and they long desperately for the healing and renewing presence of God. A servant is chosen, called to remind God's people that God's promises to them will be fulfilled. In the Gospel, as we move to the ministry of John the Baptist, Israel is again aching for God to be present among them. John proclaims that Jesus is the real deal, the Lamb of God, the fulfillment of God's promises. The Holy Spirit remains with Jesus. And as John testifies, when Jesus baptizes with the Spirit, this is God healing and renewing the people.

Al entrar en tiempo ordinario, después de la Navidad, nuestras lecturas sugieren que algo extraordinario está sucediendo. En el pasaje de Isaías, durante el tiempo de su exilio el pueblo de Israel esta terriblemente confundido y perdido, y anhelan desesperadamente la curación y renovación de la presencia de Dios. Un siervo es elegido, llamado para recordarle a la gente de Dios que se cumplirán las promesas de Dios para ellos. En el Evangelio, como nos desplazamos hasta el Ministerio de Juan el Bautista, Israel nuevamente es dolor para que Dios estar presente entre ellos. John proclama que Jesús es el verdadero negocio, el cordero de Dios, el cumplimiento de las promesas de Dios. El Espíritu Santo permanece con Jesús. Y como John testifica, cuando Jesús se bautiza con el espíritu, Dios, sanación y renovación de las personas.
