You may not think about your decision to marry as call from God, but rather as an intense Attraction to your beloved. Hmm, isn't that what compelled the apostles to follow Jesus?

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

What are you most proud of? What do you like to boast about? Were you top of your class in college? Do you work harder than anyone in your office? Or are you the best at appearing to work hard, but hardly working? Everyone likes to have something they are the best at, or at least very good. But it really is kind of silly to base your own worth on what you accomplish. What truly makes us important is that we are loved by God. Our second reading tells how God uses the foolish, weak, or poorest people to shame those who are wise, strong, and wealthy. Why? Because God loves the poor, the weak, the disabled, the homeless just as much as God loves the important people. And it's not just the external qualities that are important. Some wealthy people have great love for the poor. Some of the best teachers only work with disabled children. Our Gospel on the Beatitudes today makes that clear if you listen carefully. Blessed are not just the poor, but the poor in spirit; not only the hungry, but those who hunger for righteousness. That's what Saint Paul means when he says, "Whoever boasts, should boast in the Lord" (1 Corinthians 1:31). So how do we get to be "important" to God? Instead of asking God to make my projects a success, I can ask what God wants me to do. And for all the good that you do, remember to thank the Lord.

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY,

Alcoholic beverages will not be allowed at parish events at
ST. JUDE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Qué estás más orgulloso? ¿Qué te gusta presumir? Fueron las mejores de su clase en la universidad? ¿Trabajas más que nadie en su oficina? O eres la mejor en la que apareces trabajando duro, pero apenas trabajando? A todos nos gusta tener algo que son los mejores, o al menos muy bueno. Pero lo que realmente es una especie de tontería basar su propia valía en lo que puede realizar. Lo que realmente nos hace importante es que somos amados por Dios. Nuestra segunda lectura narra cómo Dios usa los tontos, débiles o pobres para avergonzar a aquellos que son sabios, fuertes y ricos. ¿Por qué? Porque Dios ama a los pobres, a los débiles, los minusválidos, las personas sin hogar tanto como Dios ama a la gente importante.

Y no es solo la calidad exterior que son importantes. Algunas personas adineradas tienen un gran amor a los pobres. Algunos de los mejores maestros sólo trabaja con niños discapacitados. Nuestro Evangelio de las Bienaventuranzas hoy lo deja claro si escucha atentamente. Bienaventurados no sólo a los pobres, pero los pobres de espíritu, no sólo a los hambrientos, sino a aquellos que tienen hambre de justicia. Eso es lo que san Pablo quiere decir cuando dice, "quien ostenta, debería jactarse en el Señor" (1 Corintios 1:31).

Así que, ¿cómo podemos llegar a ser "importante" a Dios? En lugar de pedir a Dios para hacer mis proyectos un éxito, puedo preguntar lo que Dios quiere que haga. Y por todo el bien que usted hace, recuerde dar gracias al Señor.

EFFECTIVO INMEDIATAMENTE,

No se permitirán bebidas alcohólicas en los eventos parroquiales de la iglesia
SAN JUDAS.

Gracias por su cooperación.
