CONTINUING THE CHRISTMAS SEASON

This second week of the Christmas Season can be a great help for our daily connections with our Lord. We have the full and wonderful Solemnity in honor of Mary, in her role as "Mother of God." We can ask her to be our guide all week as we desire to grow closer to her Son. We can read Pope Francis' words for the World Day of Prayer for Peace and ponder them from time to time this week.

As we go through our daily, and often very busy lives in these days after Christmas, we can continue a sense of this brief season by continuing to ask that our Lord come to us in the ways we still need light and healing and peace. For some of us, this will be an easy prayer this week Waiting faithfully can continue into the Christmas Season.

A special grace to ask for this week would be the gift of celebrating our Lord's presence with us. We can ask for it every morning, as we get going and we can enter into brief conversations with our Lord, in the background, as we encounter some of the places in our life in which we can see more hope, more of an opportunity for peace. This week, we might hold up each member of our family, close friends and neighbors, and those we might work with, seeing and celebrating how our Lord is manifest in them. For some of us, there may be real epiphany moments, when we see what we haven't been seeing, feel what we haven't been feeling or experience a call we haven't felt before. Being watchful for and open to these special post-Christmas moments of grace is very important.

For those of us in the Northern Hemisphere, these days are short and darkness comes early. Perhaps we can light a candle every evening this week at dinner just to celebrate the Light of Jesus that comes into the darkness of our lives. In the Southern Hemisphere, there is so much light, we can rejoice with it.

ONLINE MINSTIRES CREIGHTON UNIV.

Esta segunda semana de la temporada de Navidad puede ser una gran ayuda para nuestras conexiones diarias con nuestro Señor. Tenemos la plena y maravillosa solemnidad en honor de María, en su papel de "Madre de Dios". Podemos pedirle que sea nuestra guía toda la semana crecer más cerca de su hijo. Podemos leer las palabras del Papa Francisco para la Jornada Mundial de oración por la paz.

Como vamos a través de nuestra vida diaria y muy ocupado-en estos días después de Navidad, podemos continuar el sentido de esta breve temporada al pedir que nuestro Señor a nosotros de maneras que todavía necesitamos: luz y sanación y paz. Se trata de una oración fácil esta semana que fielmente puede continuar en la temporada de Navidad. Una gracia especial para pedir esta semana sería el regalo de la celebración de la presencia de nuestro Señor con nosotros. Podemos pedirla cada mañana, y podemos entrar en conversaciones cortas con nuestro Señor. Podemos ver más esperanza, más de una oportunidad para la paz. Esta semana, podríamos ver cada miembro de nuestra familia, amigos y vecinos celebrando cómo nuestro Señor se manifiesta en ellos. Para algunos de nosotros, puede haber momentos de epifanía real, cuando veamos lo que no hemos estado viendo, sentimos lo que no hemos estado sintiendo o experimentamos una llamada que no hemos sentido antes. Abre nuestros ojos y permítenos ver a estos momentos especiales después de Navidad de gracia son muy importantes.

Para aquellos de nosotros en el hemisferio norte, estos días son cortos y la oscuridad llega temprano. Quizás podemos encender una vela cada noche esta semana en la cena para celebrar la luz de Jesús que entra en la oscuridad de nuestras vidas. En el hemisferio sur, hay tanta luz, podemos regocijarnos con eso.

The world must be educated to love Peace, to build it up and defend it." — Pope Paul VI, 1968

WORLD DAY OF PEACE

World Day of Peace is a feast day of the Roman Catholic Church dedicated to peace. Held on January 1, on the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, it was introduced in 1967 and was inspired by the encyclicals, "Pacem in Terris"; and "Populorum Progressio."

On this day, we act as a global community to take steps toward a more peaceful world. Through actions and prayer, we are able to work toward a more peaceful future.

Please pray for world peace:

Loving God, we ask for your help in bringing about peace among all people. As Your children, we are bound to each other through our created nature. Help us to see that our differences are not cause for conflict. Open our eyes and allow us to see our neighbors as our bothers and sisters. Bless our actions, that they may be the cause of peace and not injustice. Bless our lips, that they may speak your loving words in conversation with all people and be an avenue for change through prayer.

En este día, actuamos como una comunidad global a dar pasos hacia un mundo más pacífico, a través de acciones y la oración.

Por favor oren por la paz mundial:

Dios amoroso, pedimos tu ayuda para lograr la paz entre todas las personas. Como tus hijos, estamos obligados mutuamente a través de nuestra naturaleza creada. Ayúdanos a ver que nuestras diferencias no son motivo de conflicto. Ver a nuestros vecinos como nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Bendice nuestras acciones, que pueden ser la causa de la paz y no la injusticia. Bendice nuestros labios para, que hablen palabras amorosas en conversación con todas las personas y sean una vía para el cambio a través de la oración. CHA .com

SUNSHINE FUND UPDATE

In complying with the Diocese of Orlando Finance Committee the SUNSHINE FUND has been renamed the FUNDED DEPRECIATION RESERVE COLLECTION. This collection will be exempt from the annual assessment calculation for Our Catholic Appeal.

Cumpliendo con el Comité de Finanzas de la diócesis de Orlando, nuestro "Sunshine Fund" ha tomado un nombre nuevo: Funded Depreciation Reserve Collection. Esta colecta estará exenta del cálculo anual de evaluación para nuestra campaña católica

HOMEBOUND MINISTRY

The homebound parishioners are still an integral part of our parish and are in communion with us, even though they are not physically present.

We need your help to tell us about any members of our community who are shut in or sick. Please give the parish office a call to let us know if there is someone who is sick who would like a call or visit from Fr. Bart, a Deacon, or the homebound ministers.

Los feligreses enfermos siguen siendo una parte integral de nuestra parroquia y están en comunión con nosotros, a pesar de que no están físicamente presentes. Necesitamos su ayuda para informarnos sobre los miembros de nuestra comunidad que están en o enfermos. Por favor llame a la oficina de la parroquia si hay alguien que está enfermo que desea una llamada o visita de p. Bart, un diácono o los ministros de la casa.

GOD BLESS A CHEERFUL GIVER

For many of us, Christmas is a blessed time to share the joy of the season with our family and friends. It is just as important to answer the call to help others less fortunate than us. Please continue your generous spirit of donations to our food pantry and poor box.

God bless a cheerful giver.

Para muchos de nosotros, la Navidad es un tiempo bendito para compartir la alegría de la temporada con nuestra familia y amigos. Es importante responder a la llamada para ayudar a otros menos afortunados que nosotros. Por favor continúe su espíritu generoso de las donaciones a nuestra despensa y caja de pobres.

Dios bendice al dador alegre.

MARY HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

This feast has had several names through history. Strangely, the title that is most confusing to non-Catholics is the official one. When we call Mary the Mother of God, we are not saying that she somehow preceded God or is equal to God. We are simply recognizing that her human son Jesus is also the divine Son of God.

Today's Gospel records one simple action of Mary: to keep these things in her heart. Even in this simple sentence we are given a good example of being a disciple. Like Mary, we need to both keep, or remember, what God has done, and to reflect on what we remember. First, how much do we remember about what God has done for us? How well do we know the stories of salvation found in the scriptures? Do we recall the prayers God has answered, the guidance given, the love of God that others have shown us, the times God has forgiven us?

Second, how much do we reflect on what God has done? Even if we have many memories of God's goodness to us, we also need to pray over them and ask ourselves how we have changed because of what God has done. Do I forgive hurts more readily? Do I share my faith with my family or friends? Do I support my parish with my time or offerings? Let us ask God's help to imitate Mary by remembering and reflecting.

Esta fiesta ha tenido varios nombres a través de la historia. Curiosamente, el título que es más confuso a los no católicos es la oficial. Cuando llamamos a María madre de Dios, no estamos diciendo que de alguna manera precedió a Dios o es igual a Dios. Simplemente estamos reconociendo que su hijo humano, Jesús, es el divino Hijo de Dios.

El evangelio de hoy registra una acción simple de María: para mantener estas cosas en su corazón. Incluso en esta frase se nos da un buen ejemplo de como ser un discípulo. Como María, nosotros necesitamos mantener o lo que Dios ha hecho, y reflexionar sobre lo que recordamos. En primer lugar, ¿Recordar lo que Dios ha hecho por nosotros? ¿Sabemos las historias de la salvación en las escrituras? ¿Recordamos las oraciones que Dios nos ha contestado, la dirección dada, el amor de Dios que otros nos han mostrado, las veces que Dios nos ha perdonado?

En segundo lugar, cuánto reflexionamos sobre lo que Dios ha hecho? Incluso si tenemos muchos recuerdos de la bondad de Dios para nosotros, también necesitamos orar y preguntarnos cómo hemos cambiado debido a lo que Dios ha hecho. ¿Perdono heridas más fácilmente? ¿Comparto mi fe con mi familia o amigos? ¿Apoyo a mi parroquia con mi tiempo u ofertas? Pidamos la ayuda de Dios para imitar a María en recordar y reflexionar.
