JUBILEE YEAR OF THE EUCHARIST

May we never cease to invite the Lord to

"stay with us"
in our hearts and in our actions.

The Jubilee Year of the Eucharist is a time to refresh ourselves in the knowledge of the "source and summit" of our Catholic faith - the Eucharist. Let us celebrate our faith with a deeper awareness of the Mass, of what we bring to it and of what is expected of the faithful as we go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

OUR CATHOLIC APPEAL

Did you know...? Your gifts to Our Catholic Appeal promote faith-filled education.

During Catholic Schools Week (January 28 – February 3), we celebrate the 42 schools and preschools within our Diocese and their mission to proclaim the Gospel message in an academic environment of excellence.

This year the theme for Catholic Schools Week is "Catholic Schools: Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service." Our Diocesan Office of Schools, which receives funding through Our Catholic Appeal, plays a key role in helping our schools to succeed as models of Christian community. Curriculum development, technology support, and teacher certification are just a few of the vital services that are offered to our schools as a result of your generous gifts. For more information visit www.orlandodiocese.org/ministries-offices/schools.

Ladies of the parish please join our Ladies Guild. We meet the first Tuesday of each month at 1:00 pm. Membership is only $5.00 for the year. Meeting on Tuesday, February 6 will be held at Pasta Faire in Belleview. Please call office to reserve a seat.

TRUE PROPHETS

In Deuteronomy today we hear that God's very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God's mouth. In Mark's Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God's own voice. The whole history of our church is filled with both true and false prophets. Some false prophets were extremely popular and quite well-versed in scripture, and even held positions of authority. But in today's Gospel we learn that Jesus' fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn't an authority because he was popular or famous. Elsewhere, we also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God's purposes. Today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day. Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God's very words filling our mouths. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

PROFETAS VERDADEROS

Hoy en Deuteronomio oímos que las palabras de Dios llenarán la boca de un profeta verdadero, pero un profeta falso pondrá, por así decirlo, palabras meramente humanas en boca de Dios. En el Evangelio según san Marcos, vemos a Jesús enseñando y curando como un profeta verdadero con la autoridad de la voz de Dios. La historia de nuestra Iglesia está llena de ambos tipos de profetas. Algunos profetas falsos fueron extremadamente populares y eran muy versados en la Sagrada Escritura, incluso ocupaban puestos de autoridad eclesial. Pero en el Evangelio de hoy descubrimos que la fama de Jesús se extendió porque enseñaba con autoridad; no era una autoridad porque fuera popular o famoso. En otra parte, descubrimos con él, cuando es tentado y enfrenta a Satanás en el desierto, que cualquiera puede citar la Sagrada Escritura, incluso si estos van en contra de los propósitos de Dios. Hoy oímos que su autoridad no era como la de los escribas, que eran la autoridad oficial religiosa en su época. Nuestra tarea es hacer todo lo posible por saber identificar a los verdaderos profetas que están entre nosotros y también a ser verdaderos profetas. El salmista nos dice cómo hacerlo: no debemos endurecer nuestros corazones cuando escuchamos a Dios. Si realmente escuchamos a Dios, Dios pondrá sus palabras en nuestra boca. Copyright (c) J. S. Supporting Education (t)
Offering a place to learn and rest in the Lord

"I was an atheist until camp, so it changed my life. I found God," said 15-year-old Elisabeth who recently attended summer camp at the San Pedro Spiritual Development Center in Winter Park. She is one of the 9,000 visitors who encounter God at the center each year.

On any given day at San Pedro there may be engaged couples preparing for marriage at a Pre-Cana weekend, people participating in a book club led by one of the Franciscan friars, a variety of retreats taking place, or a member of the faithful simply encountering God in the serene beauty of the center's natural surroundings.

Supported by Our Catholic Appeal, San Pedro Center serves the people of the diocese as a place set apart for human, intellectual, spiritual and pastoral development. It recently became the home of Faith Fit Enrichment, a certification and continuing education program for diocesan catechists and teachers.

With recent building upgrades and future plans to enhance the center, San Pedro Director Franciscan Brother Randall Pinner says, "Our vision is to create the perfect environment for people and groups to become aware of God's presence in their lives amidst the beauty and peace of God's creation."

Apoyando la Educación (t)

Ofreciendo un lugar para aprender y descansar en el Señor

“Era atea hasta que llegue al campamento y mi vida cambi6. Encontré a Dios”, dijo Elizabeth de 15 áfidos, quien recientemente asistió a un campamento de verano en el Centro de Desarrollo Espiritual San Pedro en Winter Park. Ella es una de los 9,000 visitantes que encuentran a Dios en el centro cada año.

En cualquier momento puede que haya parejas preparándose para el sacramento del matrimonio durante un fin de semana de Pre-Cana, personas participando de un club de lectura guiado por los frailes franciscanos, una variedad de retires llevándose a cabo o simplemente un fiel encontrando a Dios en la belleza serena de la naturaleza en los alrededores del centro.

Sostenido por Nuestro Llamado Católico, el Centro San Pedro sirve a las personas de la diócesis como un lugar reservado para el desarrollo humano, intelectual, espiritual y pastoral. Recientemente se convirtió en el hogar de Faith Fit Enrichment, un programa de certificación y educación continua para catequistas y maestros.

Con recientes actualizaciones a los edificios y planes futuros para mejorar el centro, el Director de San Pedro el Hermano Franciscano Randall Pinner dice, “Nuestra visión es crear el ambiente perfecto para que personas y grupos estén conscientes de la presencia de Dios en sus vidas, en medio de la belleza y la paz de la creación de Dios”.
