HITTING IT BIG

It seems to be commonly accepted nowadays that everyone wants to win the lottery, hit the slots big at the casino, or be a millionaire. This attitude is akin to what the first hearers of the parable of the successful farmer would have thought: Why, of course he'd want to find a way to preserve his good fortune for the future, to secure for himself a life of leisure, eating, drinking, and merriment. It's exactly the kind of life that the right ticket, hand of cards, or quiz show answer might bring us today. Being surrounded by this "common wisdom" makes the words of Qoheleth, the psalmist, Paul, and Jesus all that much harder to hear today. Perhaps good fortune will be ours, perhaps it will not be. But if we make that fortune or the quest for it the heart, the very center, of our lives, then we will live to regret it. We will not achieve the future security we pursue, and we will lose the present moment in the chase. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

"When we put away selfishness, we start to see what really makes life worth living." - John Leonetti

Jubilee Year of Mercy

"You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you" (Luke 12:20). Hardly sounds like mercy! Unlike some contemporary rich folks, there is no indication of lying, stealing, or cheating in Jesus' parable. The rich man made a living, not a killing. Why does Jesus name him "fool"? First, because of presumption. Five times in nine verses, the rich man declares, "I shall." God's not in charge here, I am! Second, selfishness--four times, "my/myself." No God, no neighbor; he talks to himself, about himself: my possessions, my productivity, my plans! So, instead of chasing "treasure for ourselves," Jesus and Pope Francis' Jubilee Year of Mercy bid us grow "rich in what matters to God" (12:21), namely, the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. Give food, drink, clothing, and healing; visit the imprisoned; bury the dead. Heal with Jesus' own gentleness the doubt, ignorance, and sins of others; comfort, forgive, be patient; and pray for the living and dead.

Año Jubilar de la Misericordia

'¡Insensato!' Esta misma noche vas a morir" (Lucas 12:20). ¡Esto no suena misericordioso! En esta parábola de Jesús, a diferencia de algunas personas ricas de estos tiempos, no hay mención de mentir, robar o engañar. El hombre rico se ganaba la vida, no es un asesino. ¿Qué es lo que Jesús le quiere decir por "insensato"? Primero, por arrogante. El hombre rico diciendo lo que va a hacer. Dios no está a cargo de la situación sino el hombre rico. Segundo, por egoísta. No hay mención de Dios, del prójimo; él hombre rico se habla así mismo de él mismo: ¡mis posesiones, mi productividad, mis planes! Así que en lugar de desear "abundancia de bienes" para nosotros; Jesús y el Papa Francisco en este Año Jubilar de la Misericordia nos proponen crecer en aquello que "vale ante Dios" (12:21), es decir las obras de misericordia corporales y espirituales. Dar de comer, de beber, vestir y sanar; visitar a los prisioneros, enterrar a los muertos. Sanar con la misma gentileza de Jesús la duda, la ignorancia y las culpas de los prójimos, confortar, perdonar, ser paciente y orar por los vivos y los muertos.

Golpear a lo grande

Parece ser comúnmente aceptada hoy en día que todo el mundo quiere ganar la lotería, golpear las ranuras grandes en el casino, o ser millonario. Esta actitud es similar a lo que los primeros oyentes de la parábola del agricultor exitoso habrían pensado: ¿Por qué, por supuesto que querría encontrar una manera de preservar su buena suerte para el futuro, para asegurar por sí mismo una vida de ocio, comer, beber, y la alegría. Es exactamente el tipo de vida que el billete derecha, mano de cartas, o concurso de televisión respuesta para ponernos en la actualidad. Al estar rodeado de esta "sabiduría popular" hace que las palabras de Cohélet, el salmista, Pablo, y Jesús todo lo que mucho más difícil escuchar hoy. Tal vez la buena suerte será la nuestra, tal vez no lo será. Pero si hacemos que la fortuna o la búsqueda de que el corazón, el centro de nuestras vidas, entonces vamos a vivir para lamentarlo. No vamos a lograr la seguridad futura que buscamos, y vamos a perder el momento presente en la persecución. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
