Jubilee Year of Mercy

June 19, 2016

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today, as he often does, Luke portrays Jesus "praying in solitude" (Luke 9:18). The Jubilee Year of Mercy invites us to rediscover the value of silence as the prayerful setting in which to reflect on the ways in which God's mercy transforms our lives, in order to make mercy the heart of our own lifestyle. But in a line that sounds odd, Jesus "rebuked" his disciples "and directed them not to tell anyone" (9:20-21) after they professed their faith in Jesus as "the Christ of God" (9:20). Jesus challenges us also to profess our faith not by what we say, but by what we do: take up our own cross daily (9:23) and "bear one another's burdens" (Galatians 6:2). Our gratitude for God's mercy toward us should make us instruments of God's mercy toward all. Then, as Zechariah prophesies in today's first reading, the fountain of God's mercy will open to purify the whole world from the sin and selfishness that cause suffering and sorrow to so many (Zechariah 13:1).

FOLLOW IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF CHRIST

The great fifty-day celebration of Easter has concluded, as have the feasts honoring the Holy Trinity and the Body and Blood of Christ. Last week we began a long stretch of Ordinary Time that will bring us to late November. Saint Paul tells us today that those who are baptized "have clothed yourselves with Christ" (Galatians 3:27). This scripture is echoed in the Church's baptism ritual when we sing, "You have put on Christ, in him you have been baptized." This message is inspiring and sobering at the same time, for in today's Gospel, we get to the heart of what it means to be clothed in Christ. The Lord tells us, "If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me" (Luke 9:23). For the next twenty-two weeks we are called to take up the cross and, with Saint Luke as our guide, follow in the footsteps of Christ.

Año Jubilar de la Misericordia

19 de junio de 2016

Duodécimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Hoy, como frecuentemente lo hace, Lucas presenta a Jesús “alejándose para orar solo” (Lucas 9:18). El Año Jubilar de la Misericordia nos invita redescubrir el valor del silencio como una manera de rezar para reflexionar de qué manera la misericordia de Dios transforma nuestras vidas, para hacer misericordia el corazón de nuestro propio estilo de vida. Pero en un momento Jesús dice algo que suena “extraño”, cuando ordena a sus discípulos no decirle a nadie (ver 9:20–21) después de que profesan su fe en Jesús como “El Mesías de Dios” (9:20). Jesús también nos desafía a profesar nuestra fe no por lo que decimos, sino por lo que hacemos: tomar nuestra cruz de cada día (9:23) y “llevar las cargas los unos de los otros”. Nuestro agradecimiento por la misericordia de Dios hacia nosotros debe hacernos instrumentos de la misericordia de Dios hacia con todos. Luego, como la profecía del profeta Zacarías en la primera lectura, la fuente de la misericordia de Dios brotará para purificar a todo el mundo de los pecados y el egoísmo que causa sufrimiento y dolor a muchos (Zacarías 13:1). —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. ## SEGUIR LOS PASOS A CRISTO

La gran celebración de cincuenta días de la Pascua ha concluido, al igual que las fiestas en honor a la Santísima Trinidad y al Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. La semana pasada comenzamos el largo tramo del Tiempo Ordinario que nos llevará hasta el final de noviembre. San Pablo nos dice hoy que los que han sido bautizados “se han revestido de Cristo” (Gálatas 3:27). Este mensaje es inspirador y al mismo tiempo nos alecciona, ya que en el Evangelio de hoy, vamos al centro de lo que significa estar revestidos de Cristo. El Señor nos dice, “si alguno quiere acompañarme, que no se busque a sí mismo, que tome su cruz de cada día y me siga” (Lucas 9:23). Durante las veinte y dos semanas que siguen somos llamados a tomar la cruz y, con san Lucas como guía, seguir en los pasos a Cristo.
