Bishop Noonan Calls us to Pray

All life is sacred as each one of us is made in the image and likeness of God. We cherish each person as a child of God. We pray for victims of violence and acts of terror...for their families and friends...and all those affected by such acts against God's love. We pray for the people of the city of Orlando that God's mercy and love will be upon us as we seek healing and consolation. Every time we look at the Cross, we see how God has forgiven us in Christ – with a love that bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things; love never fails. We dry the tears of those who weep and mourn as gently as Veronica wiped the Lord's bleeding face on the Via Dolorosa. May the Peace of Christ dwell within our heart.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

June 26, 2016

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Yet again in Ordinary Time, Jesus seems to demand extraordinary commitment. A would-be disciple enthusiastically volunteers to follow Jesus "wherever" (Luke 9:57). Jesus replies that "wherever" means "nowhere to rest his head" (9:58). To other candidates, Jesus brusquely denies reasonable requests to fulfill family obligations (9:59, 61), declaring that discipleship demands total commitment—now! But Jesus also demands that we not judge how others respond. When James and John volunteered to "call down fire from heaven" (9:54) to destroy an unwelcoming town, Jesus "turned and rebuked them" (9:55). All violence of any kind is completely unacceptable among Jesus' disciples, a lesson this Jubilee Year of Mercy is teaching the Christian community once again. Paul's challenge to the Galatians and us reinforces Jesus' decisive command to James and John that they express their commitment to him through compassion for others. We must abandon the violence of "biting and devouring one another" (Galatians 5:15), choosing instead to "serve one another through love" (5:13). —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

CATECHISTS NEEDED

Do you love GOD and want children to love Him too?

We need you as a CATECHIST!

Are you committed, dedicated and enjoy working with children? We need you as a CATECHIST!

- First day of classes for the new year will start on Sunday August 14, 2016.
- Parent orientation will be Saturday, July 23 at 1:00 PM. Please mark your calendars!

Each year dioceses around the country arrange special events to highlight the importance of defending religious freedom.

The Fortnight for Freedom is from June 21—the vigil of the Feasts of St. John Fisher and St. Thomas More—to July 4, Independence Day.

It may not always be easy to stand up for our faith in the public square. But we can draw strength from those who already have!

Año Jubilar de la Misericordia

26 de junio de 2016

Decimotercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En este, un domingo más del Tiempo Ordinario, parece que Jesús exige un compromiso extraordinario. Un aspirante entusiasmado a ser discípulo se ofrece de voluntario para seguir a Jesús “a donde sea” (Lucas 9:57). Jesús le contesta que “a donde sea” significa “no tener donde recostar la cabeza” (9:58). A otros aspirantes, Jesús bruscamente niega sus peticiones para seguirlo pues les antepone razonablemente sus responsabilidades y obligaciones familiares (9:59, 61), expresando que ahora ser discípulo exige compromiso completo. Pero Jesús también exige que no juzguemos cómo responden otras personas. Cuando Santiago y Juan se ofrecen para “hacer caer fuego del cielo” (9:54) para destruir una ciudad que no los recibió, Jesús “los reprende” (9:55). Cualquier tipo de violencia es completamente inaceptable entre los discípulos de Jesús, una lección este Año Jubilar de la Misericordia es enseñar una vez más a la comunidad cristiana. El desafío de Pablo a los gálatas y a nosotros refuerza el mandamiento decisivo de Jesús a Santiago y Juan que ellos expresaran su compromiso hacia los demás con compasión. Debemos dejar de ser violentos y dejar “comernos y devorarnos unos a otros” (Gálatas 5:15), eligiendo en su lugar “servir uno al otro por medio del amor” (5:13).

Un Mensaje del Obispo Noonan

Toda la vida es sagrada, ya que cada uno de nosotros está hecho a imagen y semejanza de Dios. Cada persona como hijo de Dios.

Oramos por las víctimas de la violencia y los actos de terrorismo ... por sus familias y amigos ... y todos los afectados por tales actos contra el amor de Dios.

Oramos por la gente de la ciudad de Orlando que la misericordia y el amor de Dios este sobre nosotros mientras buscamos sanación y consuelo.

Cada vez que miramos la cruz, vemos como Dios nos ha perdonado en Cristo – con un amor que , todo lo cree, todo lo espera, todo lo soporta. El amor nunca falla.

Secamos las lágrimas de los que lloran y se lamentan tan suavemente como la Verónica secó el rostro sangrante del Señor en la Vía Dolorosa.

Que la paz de Cristo habite en nuestro corazón.

Obispo John Noonan, Diócesis de Orlando

Colegio Católico Trinidad

Estudiantes en Misión Necesitan su Ayuda

El Colegio Católico Trinidad tiene el privilegio de educar a 4 estudiantes de las misiones durante el 2016-2017. 2 jóvenes de Uganda han sido recibidas por Sue Lanier. Sue necesita ayuda con el costo adicional de alimentos, servicios públicos, necesidades personales y los costos de transporte.

2 jóvenes son de la misión diocesana de la República Dominicana. Buscamos hogares de padres que den acogida para estas jóvenes. Las niñas pueden compartir una habitación con dos camas individuales. Necesitan patrocinio para el costo de los alimentos, los servicios públicos y las necesidades personales. Por favor comuníquese con Jennifer Beckett al 352-427-5023 si puede dar alguna ayuda. Apreciamos todas las donaciones.
