OUR CATHOLIC APPEAL

Did you know? Your gifts to Our Catholic Appeal bring families closer to God and one another.

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI described the family as "the first and indispensable teacher of peace." We want to nurture the faith of our families and support them as they face the challenges of our morally troubled world. Because of your generous gifts to Our Catholic Appeal, all families in our parish – and throughout our diocese – are able to benefit from support services provided by the Secretariat for Laity, Family, and Life's Family Ministry. Opportunities include supporting parishes with marriage enrichment programming as well resources designed to address the unique needs of stepfamilies and single parent families. For more information, visit www.orlandodiocese.org/ministriesoffices/family-ministry-welcome.

40 Ways to Mercy

During Lent, we remember our call to prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. To help Catholics enter into this time of reflection more fully, Catholic Charities of Central Florida has prepared the 2018 40 Ways to Mercy calendar. This resource has practical, spiritual and inspiring ways to share God's love through prayer, service and almsgiving. Visit cfcc.org to download your copy.

JUBILEE YEAR OF THE EUCHARIST

May we never cease to invite the Lord to

"stay with us"
in our hearts and in our actions.

"A big part of our celebration (of Mass) is the broken body. The Eucharist that sustains and nourishes us is foremost broken. So the brokenness is basically what our lives are. We nourish and feed ourselves with the broken body. Inviting us to nourish and develop within us this brokenness. Without a life being broken, no love is ever shared."

LIVE BY THE RULES

Life might be easier if there were just a list of rules that we could follow. There is such a list in Exodus. Rules offer the false sense of security that if we follow them then we will have done enough. Our Christian faith, however, is rooted not in rules, but in Jesus Christ, whose life, death, and resurrection defy all the rules. Jesus knew that strength is born of weakness and wisdom born of foolishness. Jesus' life embodies that paradox. What Jesus knew when he went up to Jerusalem and entered the temple area was that his Father's house had been made a marketplace, a place of commerce, transactions, and exchange of goods for money. What the temple represents, who Jesus is, is a relationship, an ongoing relationship of one soul to another, of our souls to God.

The Catholic Relief Services Collection

Next week, our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection (CRSC). Funds from this collection help provide food to the hungry, support to displaced refugees, and bring Christ's love and mercy to all people here at home and abroad. Next week, please give generously to the CRSC, and help Jesus in disguise. Learn more about the collection at www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.

LOS DESIGNIOS DE DIOS

En uno de los pasajes más escuetos y poéticos en su carta a los corintios, Pablo anuncia que "predicamos a Cristo crucificado. . . [porque] para los llamados. . . Cristo es la fuerza y la sabiduría de Dios" (1 Corintios 1:23, 24). Los designios de Dios parecen irrazonables para los que quieren un dios falso y valores mundanos. Pero Cristo, en su crucifixión, desconcierta el razonamiento tanto de los hambrientos de poder como de los que creen que lo saben todo. En una contundente denuncia de la estrecha mente de sus escuchas, hoy Jesús desbarata sus planes literal y figurativamente. En su reverencia por la casa de Dios, les deja saber claramente que lo que están haciendo es vulgar e insulta a Dios. Luego intenta abrirles sus débiles mentes con su comprensión del poder y la sabiduría de Dios que es la cruz. Para ellos parece debilidad y estupidez. Pero el generoso sacrificio de Jesús es exactamente lo que completa la alianza que simboliza el templo. El nuevo Templo es el propio cuerpo y sangre de Cristo.
