The Corona Self-Help Center at St Jude on May 27 & 28

This is an organization that works with individuals and families suffering from substance abuse free of charge. The recovery programs are drug-free residential settings, with treatment stages reflecting increased levels of personal and social responsibilities. A representative will give a brief personal testimony after all weekend masses.

Of all the promises Jesus gave to his disciples, sometimes I find the one at the end of today's Gospel to be the most amazing of all. Jesus tells his disciples that they would do greater works than he did. What could be greater than walking on water, curing a blind man, raising the dead, or feeding five thousand people with only a few loaves of bread?

First, we have to ask what Jesus would think is greater. The apostles performed many miracles because of their faith in the Lord. They cured the sick, and Peter even brought a dead woman back to life (Acts 9:40). But even these signs are not greater than what Jesus did. No, Jesus meant greater in the sense of the true work of a disciple.

The disciples started right after Pentecost, when they received the power of the Holy Spirit. Peter went outside and began preaching to the people, resulting in three thousand people being baptized.

I wonder if we have that same kind of trust in Jesus that the apostles had. Maybe we have to start like they did. They talked about their experience of finding the empty tomb. They prayed, they discussed what had happened, and they looked for Jesus to appear to them. We can do those same things. We can talk about our faith with our families or in a parish discussion group. We can pray to be filled with the gifts of the Spirit and to see Jesus in other people. And we can look for God to act in our lives so that we can share God's love, which has been given to us, with those who do not know the Lord.

"Feliz día de la Madre"

Para todas nuestras queridas Mamás
Sólo el amor de una madre

Sólo el mundo deja de hacerlo.

Sólo el amor de una Madre confiará,
cuando nadie otro lo cree.

Sólo el amor de una Madre perdonará,
cuando ninguno otro lo entenderá.

Sólo el amor de una Madre honrará,
no importa en qué pruebas haz estado.

Sólo el amor de una Madre resistirá, por cualquier tiempo de prueba.

En la lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles nosotros vemos como se reunió la primera comunidad de cristianos para discernir y resolver juntos cómo cuidar unos de otros de sus necesidades. Como buenos corresponsables de las hermanas y hermanos que se reunieron alrededor de la mesa Eucarística, la comunidad de fe seleccionó de entre ellos a aquellos que se asegurarían de que nadie fuese olvidado. ¿Cómo decidimos nosotros el servir las necesidades de nuestra familia parroquial? ¿Cómo nos aseguramos de que aquellos que tal vez sean percibidos como los menores de nuestros hermanos y hermanas no sean abandonados y olvidados?
