Stewardship

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Philip understood very well Jesus' words: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." We learn of Philip's devotion to prayer, evangelizing and healing in the region of Samaria; made up of communities that would not be very receptive to the followers of Jesus. Philip is a model steward, living his discipleship day by day in the Lord without being obstructed by feelings of what cost his actions might entail. Good stewards summon the courage to proclaim the Lord and to serve Him by ministering to others. As an Easter people, eager to rejoice in the Lord, it is important to reflect on how we are living out our own commitment to discipleship.

MASSES - SANCTUARY CANDLE

Please visit or call the office to reserve a Mass or the sanctuary candle for a living or deceased friend, a family member or for a special intention.

This Sunday is two weeks before Pentecost, but already the readings prepare us for that feast. The first reading from Acts shows us the conversion of the Samaritans, thanks to Philip's preaching and curing the sick. He did this through the power of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit makes Jesus present today, not just in the sacraments, but through us, his disciples. Jesus knew that after his Resurrection appearances, he would not be visible as a man. Instead, he would live in all of his followers through the power of the Holy Spirit. That's why he tells the disciples that the Spirit will be with them and in them. So confirmation, the laying on of hands (Acts 8:17), reminds us that when God lives in us, we share in the power of the Holy Spirit. In the second reading, Peter gives us practical advice. First, he tells us to be ready to explain our hope in the Lord. That hope comes from our faith in the Resurrection. When you hear that people saw and talked to Jesus after he rose from the dead, then hear that anyone who follows Jesus will share in that resurrection, you begin to have real hope. Next, Peter tells us to avoid sin, not because we won't be forgiven again, but to show that we can live a life free from sin, selfishness, and hatred. Freedom from sin allows us to give a good example of how to live. Abandoning selfishness allows us to love others without counting the cost. When we are free from hatred, we are able to forgive others as we have been forgiven. As we live in Jesus and he in us, our happiness will attract people to God.

Si guardar los mandamientos de Jesús es la clave para amarlo, ser amado por el Padre y acompañado por el Espíritu, entonces ¿qué elección tenemos para guardar sus mandamientos? Parece simple, pero a diferencia de los mandamientos con que Moisés bajó de la montaña, Jesús no nos dejó con diez normas de conducta que guíen nuestras acciones. Jesús nos dejó con un mandamiento mucho más complicado, amar a nuestros enemigos como a nosotros mismos. Este mandamiento requiere que nosotros primero nos amemos como Jesús nos amó. Nosotros debemos ver en nosotros mismos lo que Jesús vio en cada uno de nosotros. Jesús vio que también nosotros estamos hechos a imagen y semejanza de Dios y que llevamos con nosotros la fragilidad de nuestra humanidad. Nosotros debemos ver la misma devoción y humanidad en cada persona que encontramos en nuestro camino. No es solo que nosotros mismos veamos en el rostro de nuestra familia, amigos, conocidos y extraños. Es el rostro de Dios. Debemos comportarnos a la altura.
