NOVEMBER 13, 2016

As this Jubilee Year of Mercy comes to an end, Jesus' first disciples ask what every age seems to wonder about the end of the world: "Teacher, when will this happen? What sign will there be?" (Luke 21:7). But instead of what we'd like to know, Jesus tells us what we need to know. Don't be terrified by natural disasters, human violence, personal sufferings. Because God's mercy abounds, all is grace. "It will lead to your giving testimony" (21:13). So Malachi promises "the sun of justice with its healing rays" (Malachi 3:20a); and Jesus describes how we should welcome the end: "Stand erect and raise your heads, because your redemption is at hand" (Gospel Acclamation, Luke 21:28). Rather than worrying about ourselves and the future's perils, both Jesus' gospel and Pope Francis' Jubilee Year of Mercy bid us go forth to spend our lives proclaiming God's promise of boundless mercy, but also translating God's mercy into living deeds of unfailing compassion and enduring comfort.

WHY PRAY THE ROSARY?

A woman was once asked why she prayed the Rosary every day. She looked away for a moment, looked back at her questioner, and replied, "All I can tell you is if I say a Rosary, the day works; and if I don't, nothing works."

This is true. It's not true because of some kind of magic or superstition. It's true because of Mary's maternal intercession and the power of the mysteries of the life of Christ.

Countless Popes and Saints have encouraged us through the centuries to pray the Rosary. They've called it one of the most powerful prayers available after the liturgy. Miracles galore have been attributed to the Rosary.

Yes the most important Saint of all who pleads with us to say the Rosary is the Blessed Mother Mary. Through the testimony of Church-approved apparitions, Mary has made it very clear that she wants us to pray the Rosary.

Why pray the rosary? Because it "works" and Mary tells us to.

(excerpt from 33 Days to Morning Glory)

Aún una mujer una vez se le preguntó por qué ella rezaba el rosario cada día. Respondió: "Sólo puedo decirle que si rezo un rosario, las obras del día van bien y si no, nada funciona."

Esto es cierto. No es cierto debido a algún tipo de magia o superstición. Es cierto debido a la intercesión maternal de María y el poder de los misterios de la vida de Cristo.

Innumerables papas y los Santos nos han alentado a través de los siglos a rezar el rosario. Lo llamaron una de las oraciones más poderosas disponibles después de la liturgia. Abundancia de milagros han sido atribuidas al rosario.

Sí, la persona más importante de todos los que nos imploran a rezar el rosario es la Santísima Madre María. A través del testimonio de las apariciones aprobadas por la iglesia, María ha dejado muy claro que ella quiere que recemos el rosario.

¿Por qué rezar el rosario? Porque "funciona" y María que lo rogamos nos dice

(Extracto de 33 días a mañana Gloria)
