Use It or Lose It

I wonder what that third servant in the Gospel was doing all that time, after he buried the talent he was given. Probably nothing. What strikes me is that the word for money in this reading is "talent," which in our language is an ability or skill. Maybe this parable can remind us to use our abilities and not let them go to waste. A person might be strong and fast, but if she exercises and practices, she could be a great athlete. The same with spiritual gifts. Just having one doesn't make you a saint. So how do you know what gifts you have?

First, ask God in your prayers to show you what gifts you have been given. Read the scriptures, especially the Acts of the Apostles or the Letters of Paul (e.g., 1 Corinthians 12:1-11). Listen humbly to friends or loved ones who can tell you what strengths they see in you.

Second, look for ways to use your gifts. Check the parish bulletin or website or your diocesan newspaper for activities and organizations that you could take part in. Hospitals, schools, shelters, and nursing homes frequently offer opportunities for volunteers. Or you may see a need for some service that you can get started in the parish or community. Just remember that you are called to service by your baptism and confirmation. Don't bury that calling by procrastinating or being afraid to try. Remember the "useless servant" with the one talent who was fearful and lazy (Matthew 25:25-26). At least he can remind us to use it or lose it.

Remember our Homebound Parishioners

Our homebound parishioners are an integral part of our parish and are in communion with us, even though they are not physically present.

We need your help to tell us about any members of our community who are shut in or sick. Please give the parish office a call to let us know if there is someone who is sick who would like a call or visit from Fr. Bart, a Deacon, or the Ministers to the Sick.

Thanks

The Season of Advent

Be prepared. It's that simple. As this Advent season opens before us, the Lord Jesus summons us to stand ready for his coming. At this time of year much of our attention is focused on being prepared for the details that accompany the holiday season. We purchase gifts; we decorate our homes, inside and out; we prepare foods that we eat only during the holidays; we write and send Christmas cards; we attend holiday concerts; we prepare either to welcome family and friends into our homes or arrange for visits to their homes. We really can't escape the details that make up the season. Perhaps this Advent is a time to attend to all those details with a different spin. As we prepare to celebrate the feast of Christmas, why not be deliberate about acknowledging the presence of the Lord as we go about these tasks? The Lord often comes to us in wonderfully surprising ways. Let us be prepared.

EL EMPLEADO

A los empleados de la parábola se les confió la riqueza del patrón. Los talentos no eran suyos, aun así, se les pidió que hicieran fructificarlos en la ausencia de su patrón. Se esperaba que trataran los talentos como si fueran de ellos. Nuestros dones: vida, talentos, recursos financieros y materiales, le pertenecen a Dios. Se nos han confiado estos dones y se espera que se les dé un buen uso, para que así sea conocida la presencia de Dios en el mundo. Como la mujer en el pasaje de hoy del libro de los Proverbios, "debemos trabajar con manos hábiles" para dar una mano a los necesitados y socorrer a los pobres (Proverbios 31:20) por la forma en como usamos el tiempo, recursos, talentos y dones que Dios no ha confiado. Pon atención que el tercer trabajador en la parábola del Evangelio, miedoso y perezoso, no malgastó su talento, simplemente lo enterró. ¿Qué talento, don o recurso estás usando bien? ¿Qué don has enterrado? Es tiempo de desenterrarlo, desempolvarlo y empezar a usarlo como "hijos de la luz y el día" (1 tesalonicenses 5:6).

Fiesta anual de Navidad para nuestros niños

Estamos planeando nuestra fiesta anual de Navidad para los niños de la parroquia. En el pasado, nuestros feligreses han sido muy generosos en la donación de juguetes, juegos y tarjetas de regalo para nuestros estudiantes y sus hermanos. Estamos nuevamente pidiendo su apoyo para este evento. Por favor, done nuevos juguetes desenvueltos, juegos y tarjetas de regalo. Esta fiesta que se celebrará el domingo 10 de diciembre de 2:00 pm a 5:00 pm, en el salón parroquial. Tratamos de dar a los estudiantes mayores las tarjetas de regalo. Por favor traiga artículos a la oficina de educación religiosa o comuníquese con Linda Jones para más información.

Estar preparado. Es así de simple. Como este tiempo de Adviento se abre ante nosotros, el Señor Jesús nos llama a estar preparados para su venida. En esta época del año gran parte de nuestra atención se centra en estar preparado para los detalles que acompañan a la temporada de vacaciones. Compramos regalos; adornamos nuestras casas, dentro y por fuera; preparamos los alimentos que comemos sólo durante las vacaciones; que escribir y enviar tarjetas de Navidad; asistimos a conciertos de vacaciones; preparamos la bienvenida a familia y amigos en nuestros hogares o solicitar visitas a sus hogares. Realmente no podemos escapar de los detalles que componen la temporada. Tal vez este Adviento es un tiempo para atender todos los detalles con un giro diferente. Mientras nos preparamos para celebrar la fiesta de la Navidad, ¿por qué no ser deliberado acerca de reconocer la presencia del Señor a medida que avanzamos sobre estas tareas? El Señor a menudo nos llega en maravillosamente sorprendentes maneras. Debemos estar preparados.
