Today Luke, evangelist and by tradition artist, sends us forth from this Jubilee Year of Mercy with an unforgettable portrait of Christ the King. The setting for Jesus' "royal portrait" is the cross. From this "throne," the crucified "crown prince" welcomes by "executive pardon" the kingdom of mercy's first citizen, a fellow criminal. The "Good Thief" requests neither deliverance nor salvation, or even forgiveness: "Remember me when . . ." (Luke 23:42). "Today you will be with me," King Jesus promises, "in paradise." (23:43). Paradise, even for non-believers, is an image of creation contentedly in harmony with self, fellow creatures, and Creator. Today, we "good thieves" beg Jesus to remember us. We promise to remember that, although Jesus' kingdom will be fulfilled only when Jesus' returns, that kingdom begins today in the paradise that will flower from this Jubilee Year of Mercy. We disciples, having been embraced unconditionally and undeservedly by Jesus' mercy, must now go forth to embrace all others, unconditionally, with that same unfailing mercy.

NIGHTLY REVIEW

This kind of examination helps us not only at the end of a jubilee year, but also at the end of every single day. When Saint Ignatius of Loyola began his nightly reviews, he always began in gratitude, thanking God for specific gifts from the day. If we've had a particularly rotten day, we might look to Saint Paul for inspiration. His words to the Colossians remind us that all fullness "was pleased to dwell" in Jesus, who died to reconcile us to God and to open the gates of Paradise. Truly, we can always give thanks for that! With grateful hearts, then, we proceed with our review. How did we cooperate with God as sons and daughters of the Kingdom? How did we bring a little bit of Paradise to others today? How did we stand in God's way, becoming obstacles to others' journey to Paradise? Asking the Lord to have mercy on our weakness, we give hearty thanks for allowing us to work for the Kingdom. All praise to Christ the King!

WITH PERMISISON JSP

Este tipo de examen nos ayuda no sólo al final de un año de Jubileo, sino también al final de cada día. Cuando San Ignacio de Loyola comenzó sus comentarios todas las noches, siempre comenzó en gratitud, agradeciendo a Dios regalos específicos del día. Si hemos tenido un día particularmente podrido, podríamos mirarnos a San Pablo para la inspiración. Sus palabras a los Colosenses nos recuerdan que toda plenitud "se complace en morar" en Jesús, quien murió para reconciliarnos con Dios y abrir las puertas del paraíso. ¡Realmente, siempre podemos dar gracias por eso!

Con corazones agradecidos, entonces, se procede con la revisión. ¿Cooperamos con Dios como hijos e hijas del Reino? ¿Cómo nos trajo un poco de paraíso a los demás hoy? ¿Nos encontramos en la manera de Dios, convirtiéndose en obstáculos para otros viaje al paraíso? Pidiéndole al Señor que tenga misericordia de nuestra debilidad, damos abundantes gracias por permitirnos trabajar para el Reino. ¡Toda la alabanza a Cristo Rey!

BE PREPARED-ADVENT NOV. 27

Be prepared. It's that simple. As this Advent season opens before us, the Lord Jesus summons us to stand ready for his coming. At this time of year much of our attention is focused on being prepared for the details that accompany the holiday season. We purchase gifts; we decorate our homes, inside and out; we prepare foods that we eat only during the holidays; we write and send Christmas cards; we attend holiday concerts; we prepare either to welcome family and friends into our homes or arrange for visits to their homes. We really can't escape the details that make up the season. Perhaps this Advent is a time to attend to all those details with a different spin. As we prepare to celebrate the feast of Christmas, why not be deliberate about acknowledging the presence of the Lord as we go about these tasks? The Lord often comes to us in wonderfully surprising ways. Let us be prepared.

Estar preparado. Es así de simple. Como este tiempo de Adviento se abre ante nosotros, el Señor Jesús nos llama a estar preparados para su venida. En esta época del año gran parte de nuestra atención se centra en estar preparado para los detalles que acompañan a la temporada de vacaciones. Compramos regalos; adornamos nuestras casas, dentro y por fuera; preparamos los alimentos que comemos sólo durante las vacaciones; que escribir y enviar tarjetas de Navidad; asistimos a conciertos de vacaciones; preparamos la bienvenida a familia y amigos en nuestros hogares o solicitar visitas a sus hogares. Realmente no podemos escapar de los detalles que componen la temporada. Tal vez este Adviento es un tiempo para atender todos los detalles con un giro diferente. Mientras nos preparamos para celebrar la fiesta de la Navidad, ¿por qué no ser deliberado acerca de reconocer la presencia del Señor a medida que avanzamos sobre estas tareas? El Señor a menudo nos llega en maravillosamente sorprendentes maneras. Debemos estar preparados.
