My steps have been
 steadfast in your paths,

Psalm 17:5-6

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We are nearing the end of the liturgical year. Today's readings remind us that our own lives will draw to a close one day, and we can be certain that the Lord will encourage, strengthen, and save us -- both now and at the last. The astonishing story of the Maccabees invigorates our faith as we behold an entire family willing to die rather than deny the Law of Moses. The psalm response echoes the faithful cries of the Maccabees: "I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God." That same confidence appears in Saint Paul's letter to the Thessalonians. "The Lord is faithful," he testifies; "he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one." In the Gospel, Jesus explains just how long God's protection will endure. The children of God whom God guards, Jesus says, will live forever like angels.

CATHOLICS CARE. CATHOLICS VOTE.

Catholic faithful are urged to choose their political leaders according to principle, not party affiliation or mere self-interest. We are called to political engagement shaped by the moral convictions of well-formed consciences and focused on the dignity of every human being, the pursuit of the common good, and the protection of the weak and the vulnerable. To help parishioners become informed on where candidates stand on key issues, the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops has polled those running for U.S. Congress and the Florida Legislature.

JUBILEE FOR PRISONERS

One of the most moving images of Pope Francis' ministry comes from Holy Thursday. Slowly, deliberately, Francis kneels down before prisoners--men, women, young, old, Christian, Muslim--and washes their feet, recalling Jesus admonition to Peter: "If I, therefore, the master and teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash one another's feet" (John 13:14). On today's Jubilee for Prisoners, whose rights the Church bids us advocate, Jesus declares in the Gospel, "to [God] all are alive" (Luke 20:38). Have we "imprisoned" anyone figuratively, but no less painfully, Passing harsh judgment, then refusing our respect, acceptance, even affection? This month of All Saints and All Souls bids us reflect on our eternal destiny and prepare for it. Respect for ourselves and others, souls and bodies, practical care for neighbors and strangers: such witness affirms that we view our present in light of our future, and believe that, even now, in our midst, stands the Lord of life, the living Jesus.

Una de las imágenes más emotivas del Ministerio del Papa Francisco viene de Jueves Santo. Lentamente, deliberadamente, Francisco se arrodilla antes de presos--hombres, mujeres, jóvenes, viejos, cristiano, musulmán y lava sus pies, recordando la admonición de Jesús a Pedro: "si yo, por lo tanto, el maestro y profesor, ha lavado vuestros pies, vosotros debéis lavar los pies unos a otros" (John 13:14). En Jubileo de hoy para los reclusos, cuyos derechos la Iglesia nos manda defienden, Jesús declara en el Evangelio, "[Dios] todos están vivos" (Lucas 20:38). ¿Hemos nosotros "encarcelado" alguien en sentido figurado, pero no menos dolorosa, pasan áspero juicio, negarse entonces nuestro respeto, aceptación, afecto incluso? Este mes de todos los Santos y todas las almas nos pide reflexionar sobre nuestro destino eterno y preparar. Respeto para nosotros y para otros, las almas y cuerpos, cuidado práctico para vecinos y forasteros: tal testigo afirma que ve nuestro presente a la luz de nuestro futuro y creo que, incluso ahora, en nuestro medio, encuentra el Señor de la vida, la vida de Jesús.
