The Rosary Ministers Invitation

In October, the Church celebrates Our Lady of the Rosary, in veneration of Our Blessed Mother Mary.

In 1917, during one of Our Lady of Fatima's apparitions to three children of Portugal, she encouraged them to pray the rosary, offering prayers of petition for special graces to be bestowed by her Son, Jesus through her upon them.

In her honor, the Rosary Ministers will be reciting the rosary before all weekday and weekend masses during the month of October.

We will also pray together at 6:00 pm on Mon, Wed, Thu & Fri.

We encourage you to join us, offering your own petitions to Our Lady. Come to experience the power of the Rosary prayed together as a community.

"TRUNK OR TREAT"

Please participate in our annual "Trunk or Treat". Decorate your car or just the trunk, wear a costume (if you wish) and provide a safe place for our children to trick or treat. Children will walk from "trunk to trunk" to get treats. Tuesday, October 31st from 2:00 PM to 6:00 PM in the St. Jude Parking Lot. Call the office for information. Candy donations gratefully accepted. Sign up sheet in foyer.

Enkindling a Deeper Faith

Pope Francis' appeals for peace and care of creation

Pope Francis appealed to public officials and institutions to take greater care of the environment and help prevent natural disasters. Speaking during his Wednesday General Audience on October 11, the pope noted that Friday marks the international day for the reduction of natural disasters. He urged those in authority to promote a culture of care for creation, as well as taking concrete steps to defend our common home and to protect its most vulnerable inhabitants.

Friday 13th, the pope noted, also marks the closing of centenary celebrations for the last Marian apparitions to the shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal. He invited everyone to pray the Rosary throughout this month of October, asking God to move even the hardest of hearts, to put an end to violence and build a more peaceful world. via Vatican Radio

LOOKING TO THE LAST DAY

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Today the Church remembers all who have walked the way of Christ and passed from this life. The readings all look to the last day, when we shall all rise from the dead and be reunited.

The prophet Daniel announces words of warning and welfare. He cautions us against the judgment to come, but he also comforts us and assures us that all who live a life of virtue and justice will find life eternal.

The reading from Romans reminds us that, because of Christ's passion, death, and resurrection and our entrance into that paschal mystery through baptism, we now share in the new life won by Christ. This recognition has repercussions: we need to live righteously now, that we might rise to life forever with Christ on the last day. In the Gospel Jesus pledges that all the Father has given him will not be lost. All the faithful will be raised to joy and live forever in the presence of God.

"He Alone Is LORD"

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

In the scriptures, being anointed usually meant you were a prophet or king of Israel. Anointing was a sign that God had chosen you for that job. But it was almost unheard of to call a king from another country anointed. So why is Cyrus given that title? Cyrus was king of Persia when the Babylonians held the people of Israel captive. God used him to defeat the Babylonians and eventually bring the Israelites back to their homes. In our first reading, we hear the Lord's words to Cyrus about God's plan for Israel. Notice that God is in charge: telling Cyrus what God will do, making other kings run from him, opening doors or gates that might have blocked Cyrus' armies--all for a king who doesn't even know God. Cyrus only knew the Persian gods. That is why the reading says several times that there is no God but the LORD.

One thing this tells us is that God can work through anyone, not just saints and religious. Any time someone does a good deed, God is behind it. Just as God used Cyrus to free the Israelites from their Babylonian captivity, God can use governments to protect the poor, to help rebuild after disasters, to defend freedom.

In that sense, we can understand what Jesus says about payment to Caesar and to God. Since everything belongs to God, that should be our first allegiance. When a government does not protect the weakest or the rights of the poor, it should be accountable. But when God works through governments, we can give some support to them by such activities as voting, or paying taxes. Let us ask God to work through us also, helping us to proclaim that God alone is LORD.

TODOS LOS FIELES DIFUNTOS

02 de noviembre de 2017

MIRANDO AL ÚLTIMO DÍA

Hoy la iglesia recuerda a todos los que han caminado el camino de Cristo y han pasado de esta vida. Las lecturas miran hasta el último día, cuando todos estemos resucitados y reunidos.

El Profeta Daniel anuncia palabras de advertencia y de bienestar. Él nos advierte contra el juicio por venir, pero también nos consuela y nos asegura que todos los que viven una vida de virtud y justicia encontrarán vida eterna.

La lectura de Romanos nos recuerda que, debido a la pasión de Cristo, muerte y resurrección y nuestra entrada en ese misterio Pascual a través del bautismo, que ahora compartimos en la nueva vida ganada por Cristo. Este reconocimiento tiene repercusiones: que necesitamos para vivir rectamente, que podríamos resucitar a la vida para siempre con Cristo en la última jornada.

En el Evangelio Jesús promete que todo lo el Padre le ha dado no se perderán. Todos los fieles serán resucitados a la alegría y vivirán para siempre en la presencia de Dios.

Invitación de Ministros del Rosario

En octubre, la iglesia celebra el mes del Rosario en veneración a la Santísima Virgen María.

En 1917, durante una de las apariciones de La Virgen de Fátima, tres niños de Portugal, se animaron a rezar el rosario, ofreciendo oraciones de petición por gracias especiales que son concedidas por Su Hijo Jesús a través de Ella para ellos.

En su honor, los Ministros del Rosario rezarán el rosario antes de todas las misas durante el mes de Octubre y a las 5:30 pm antes de la misa del martes de cada semana, y además lunes, martes, jueves y viernes a las 6:00 pm.

Los invitamos a unirse a nosotros, ofreciendo sus peticiones a la Virgen. Venga a experimentar el poder del Rosario recitado juntos como una comunidad cristiana.

AHELAMOS VER A DIOS

"Señor, esto es la gente que quiere ver tu rostro". Esta antífona para el salmo responsorial de hoy ofrece el enfoque de las lecturas de hoy. Que celebramos en la tierra el triunfo de todos los Santos--los oficialmente canonizados por la iglesia y muchos otros que también han alcanzado el cielo--añadir nada a su gloria. Pero nosotros damos razón a la esperanza. Demasiado largo para ver el rostro de Dios y creo que nos podemos un día contar entre aquellos cuyas túnicas, como Juan nos dice en el libro de Apocalipsis, lavamos "blanco en la sangre del cordero". Primera carta del pasaje de Juan ofrece más garantía: Somos los hijos de Dios que un día verán a Dios. Pero el Evangelio de hoy nos arrastra más allá de anhelo y confianza en la acción. Jesús claramente nos dice lo que debemos hacer para ser contados entre los Santos. Debemos ser pobres de espíritu, hambrientos de santidad, misericordiosos, limpios y constructores de paz. Luego también veremos el rostro de Dios.
