From the priest, deacons and staff of St. Jude

We give thanks to our Lord for keeping our parish community and the Marion Oaks community safe and we continue to pray for all those affected by Hurricane Irma. God Bless you!

By Fr. Michael Kwatera, OSB

We give you praise, Lord of heaven and earth, for you are the strength of your people, in good times and bad.

After the great flood, your servant Noah and his family offered you a pleasing sacrifice of thanksgiving. Now, after this time of destruction, we thank you for keeping us safe under your care and for bringing us back to our home.

You have told us in the Bible: "Deep waters cannot quench love, nor floods sweep it away." [Song of Songs 8:7] Let your everlasting love for us be our hope, this day and every day, as we live here once again. Let our love for you withstand every storm and difficulty, never to be swept from our hearts.

Praise to you, almighty Father, through Jesus Christ, our Lord and brother, in the power of the Holy Spirit, both now and for ever. Amen.

HORRIFIED

People in general are equally horrified at hearing the Christian religion doubted and at seeing it practiced.

-Samuel Butler

A GENEROUS GOD

The parable in today's Gospel identifies a very strong human tendency to believe that everyone should get what they deserve. If we achieve more than others, we deserve to receive more: more money, more privilege, more honor. And so we anticipate that God will reward more liberally those who have done more for God. Jesus says that God does things differently. The full day's wage in the story is like the gift of forgiveness and salvation, shared equally and abundantly with all. The full-day laborers complained that "you have made them equal to us, who bore the day's burden." They resented not being placed higher than the others, refusing to accept them as equals. Jesus is saying that, among God's people, there is no such pecking order. Regardless of background or achievements, we can accept everyone as brothers and sisters, and rejoice in God's generosity to everyone.

Our homebound parishioners are still an integral part of our parish and are in communion with us, even though they are not physically present.

We need your help to tell us about any members of our community who are shut in or sick. Please give the parish office a call to let us know if there is someone who is sick who would like a call or visit from Fr. Bart, a Deacon, or the homebound ministers.

Thanks

"We must restore hope to young people, help the old, be open to the future, and spread the love. Be poor among the poor. We need to include the excluded and preach peace."
Pope Francis

September 30 - October 1, 2017 will be the annual collection which supports the major portion of the work done through the Diocesan Mission Office for the benefit of our Sister Diocese, San Juan de la Maguana where we provide educational, health, and pastoral support to the people in the mountainous regions of the Cordillera Central in the Dominican Republic.

BLESSED SACRAMENT ADORATION

Everybody is invited to visit the Lord on Wednesdays after the 8:00 am Mass until 2:00 pm. We need more adorers. Come and experience His mercy and love. Do not leave Him alone.

From an early age, we tend to distort the concept of "fairness": "I am good. I deserve good things. I am not receiving good things. Something must be wrong. Who's going to fix it?" We also know the age-old expression: "Who ever said life was fair?" Jesus knew this expression when he offered his parable in today's Gospel reading. Christian stewards acknowledge, with humility, that they receive good things from the Lord in abundance; even if these gifts are not the ones they think they need when they need them. Consider which servants you identify with most in the Gospel reading, the ones who demand "fairness", or that final servant who, seemingly, deserves the least.

HORRORIZADA

La gente en general se horroriza igualmente al escuchar la religión cristiana en duda y al ver que practicaban.

UN DIOS GENEROSO

La parábola del Evangelio de hoy identifica una tendencia fuertemente humana de creer que cada uno debe obtener lo que se merece. Si logramos más que otros, merecemos recibir más: más dinero, más privilegios, más honor. Y así anticipamos que Dios nos recompensará más libremente a aquellos que han hecho más por Dios.

Jesús dice que Dios hace las cosas de manera diferente. El salario de un día, en la historia es como el don de perdón y salvación, compartida igual y abundantemente con todos. Los trabajadores de tiempo completo se quejan diciéndole: "le pagas lo mismo que a nosotros que soportamos el peso del día y del calor". Les molestaba que no les hayan pagado más que a los otros, rechazando aceptarlos como iguales. Jesús dice que en medio del pueblo de Dios no hay tal jerarquía. Independientemente de antecedentes o logros, podemos aceptar a todos como hermanos y hermanas, y alegrarnos en la generosidad de Dios para todos.
