How Are We Bearing Fruit?

It is great to see the flowers blooming after all the snow we had last winter! For those of you who are gardeners, it must be particularly joyful. I am not a gardener, although I love the flowers that are blooming in my yard. However, I have a forsythia bush that looks very scraggly. I also have one that is turning a nice shade of yellow. The first needs pruning badly! The second overhangs my neighbor's driveway, so he cuts it back each year – with my blessing! In order for our plants to grow strong and trees to bear fruit, they need pruning. In order for us to grow strong in our faith, so do we! According to today's Gospel, our pruning comes from listening to the word of God and staying connected to Jesus, the true vine. We know that we are connected by the way in which we live our lives. I know that I am "preaching to the choir" when I say that being connected to the community at Mass each week is important and feeds us in two ways. We are fed on the Word and the Eucharist. These two together nourish us so that our lives are a witness to our beliefs. They help us to know how Jesus wants us to live and love, and gives us the nourishment we need to be able to accomplish this. We are challenged every day by those who believe that violence and hatred are normal, by people who deny the very existence of God, by those who try to convince us that we, in fact, should be the god in our lives. Love in its true sense is very counter-cultural. The media would have us believe that lust is love. Jesus tells us that we must love everyone, even the most unlovable. That we should wish no one harm. That we should forgive. When we are living attached strongly to the vine, we become living witnesses to our God who is love and our church becomes a source of peace in a troubled world.

SPECIAL COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND

Cardinal Sean has requested all parishes in the Archdiocese of Boston have a special collection in support of relief efforts to those areas devastated by the powerful earthquake that struck Nepal this past Saturday. Catholic Relief Services (CRS) emergency personnel have landed in Kathmandu, Nepal's capital to begin helping the tens of thousands affected by this destructive earthquake. The initial task will be to find shelter for the thousands who have lost their homes.

There will be a second passing of the basket for this Special Collection.

*Thank you for your continued

COLLABORATIVE BOOK CLUB

This month we will be reading a wonderful book entitled, The Boys in the Boat. This book, written by Daniel James Brown tells the story of the 9 Americans and their quest for gold at the 1936 Olympics in Germany. A great story of triumph over extreme difficulties. We will meet to discuss the book on Thursday, May 7 at 7:00pm in the Teachers' Lounge at Sacred Heart School on Boston St. We hope to see you there!

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

The next meeting of the Collaborative Prayer Shawl Ministry will be on Tuesday, May 12, from 2:00pm to 4:00pm at Lynn Catholic Collaborative Parish Office, parking is available. We knit and crochet shawls, lap robes, baby blankets, lap quilts and prayer squares. We create at home and while creating our gifts, we ask God to bring healing, hope and his peace and grace to the person who receive this gift. If you would like to join the ministry, check us out, or request a prayer gift, please call the Collaborative Office. We welcome everyone in this most rewarding program.

LECTIO DIVINA

Lectio Divina leads to the understanding that Jesus Christ is the heart of the Scriptures. In Scripture, we seek Jesus, who is the way, the truth, and the life. We discover that every word of the Bible bears witness to the living Word who is Christ. And through Lectio Divina, we enter into a heartfelt conversation with him. Starting this week, we will be meeting to learn about and pray 'Lectio Divina'. Everyone is welcome to join us from 6:30pm to 7:30pm on the first and third Mondays in the rooms next to the St. Mary's Chapel. Our next gathering is Monday, May 4. Questions? Please speak with Fr. Brian.
