How Do You Witness
God's Love to Others?

I'm going to start with the family! If your family is anything like mine, you will have at least one person who doesn't speak to another person. Sometimes that one person wants YOU to choose sides. What do you do? Then there's the neighborhood. Feuds happen. What is your response? Moving on to the workplace, do you treat all your fellow workers with equal kindness and generosity? You are here in church today so I know that your family, neighbors and maybe co-workers know that you are Catholic and that you go to church. For them, you are an example of the faith that you – that I – profess and there are expectations. We are all God's beloved children. He doesn't play favorites and doesn't expect us to as well. Jesus gave us one command: love one another. I didn't hear any exceptions in the Gospel today. Sometimes a simple smile can change a person's day. We are usually good when there is a crisis. We send sympathy cards or a meal to someone who experiences a loss. We might help babysit for someone who has a family emergency. But in the everyday, it's how we show respect, courtesy, kindness – love – that lets others know that we care. There's an old story about a monastery where the monks are told that Jesus is one of them. They begin to treat everyone as if he were Jesus and before long, people flocked to the monastery because of the love they witnessed among the monks. Well, Jesus is among us. He lives in each of us. If we begin to treat everyone as we would treat Jesus, what wonders we might see in our families, our neighborhoods, our workplaces and our church.

Special Blessings to all Mothers today
as we celebrate Motherhood.
May God continue to grant you strength, courage and wisdom!

LECTIO DIVINA

Lectio Divina leads to the understanding that Jesus Christ is the heart of the Scriptures. In Scripture, we seek Jesus, who is the way, the truth, and the life. We discover that every word of the Bible bears witness to the living Word who is Christ. And through Lectio Divina, we enter into a heartfelt conversation with him. Starting this week, we will be meeting to learn about and pray 'Lectio Divina'. Everyone is welcome to join us from 6:30pm to 7:30pm on the first and third Mondays in the rooms next to the St. Mary's Chapel. Our next gathering is Monday, May 18. Questions? Please speak with Fr. Brian.

KIRBY HAYES SCHOLARSHIP:

Applications for the Kirby Hayes Scholarships are now available at the Collaborative Office. The deadline for applications is June 1, 2015. Each year college scholarship awards are made through the Kirby Hayes Scholarship Fund that is administered by St. Mary's Parish for current high school Seniors that are Lynn Catholic Collaborative active parishioners entering college in the fall.

End of Life Planning: Honoring Choices and Advance Care Decisions

It can be very difficult to think and talk about our own mortality or the mortality of someone we love. And yet, doing so allows people to make plans that reflect their own values, stories, and wishes. Without such plans, it is more likely that preferences will not be understood and honored and that family members will be burdened with making decisions in the stress of a health care crisis. To help us understand better the process of family conversations, honoring choice, and advance care planning, a multi-disciplinary panel from North Shore Medical Center will join us and offer insight from their various perspectives. Panel members include: Howard Abrams, MD (Geriatric Psychiatry); Jane Korins, MTS, BCC (Director of Pastoral Care); and Coleen Reid, MD (Chief of Palliative Care). The meeting will take place on Tuesday, May 12th (9:30-11:00am) at 8 Silsbee Street in Lynn.

He will replace all of the beds (frames and mattresses), plus bed bug covers for each, and free delivery. We need to raise $9,875 and those beds are ours! Please donate by using our online fundraising platform YouCaring.com, and type in the search box "Lynn Adult Emergency Shelter." For questions, please contact Marge St. Paul, Executive Director at Lynn Shelter Association, at 781-581-0739 x1, mario-rie.stpaul@lsahome.org.
