A Community of Love

Today we celebrate the feast of the Holy Trinity. This is one of the great mysteries of our faith and one that is a stumbling block to many. How can we even try to understand its meaning? Maybe it's not important to try and understand, but to reflect on its importance in our lives. God is Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, a community of love. When I was young, I was taught that the work of the Father was creation, the Son, salvation and the Holy Spirit, sanctification. So, within the Trinity there are distinctions and yet unity. We are called by our baptism to be a community of love. There are distinct roles that each of us plays and yet we are called to be one in love for all. We are one family, all children of the one God, saved by the actions of the Son who became one of us so that we could be "joint heirs with Christ" and filled with the Holy Spirit so that we may go forth and tell others of this great mystery. The early Christians were well known for the love that they showed one another. I wonder what the non-Christian world sees when it looks upon us today. Do they see a community of love or do they see discord and conflict? While it's true that we can't change the past, we can work to change the present. If every family in our Collaborative became witnesses of God's love, what would happen in our city? We have a choice. We can say that one family more or less can't make a difference or we can decide to become an example of the great Community of Love that is the Trinity.

LECTIO DIVINA

Lectio Divina leads to the understanding that Jesus Christ is the heart of the Scriptures. In Scripture, we seek Jesus, who is the way, the truth, and the life. We discover that every word of the Bible bears witness to the living Word who is Christ. And through Lectio Divina, we enter into a heartfelt conversation with him. Starting this week, we will be meeting to learn about and pray 'Lectio Divina'. Everyone is welcome to join us from 6:30pm to 7:30pm on the first and third Mondays in the rooms next to the St. Mary's Chapel. Our next gathering is Monday, June 1. Questions? Please speak with Fr. Brian.

HEALING PRAYER
LAST WEDNESDAY OF EACH MONTH

On the last Wednesday of each month, our Collaborative holds an evening of healing prayer. Following the weekly 7:00pm Mass at Sacred Heart Fr. Tamiru will lead the evening and praying over/with those that want that. All are welcome, and we hope that you will set the time aside and join us for Adoration at 6:00pm, Mass and the healing prayer. This may be new for you or you have been before, but everyone is encouraged to attend. If you have questions, please speak with Fr. Tamiru.
