Pastoral Associate Fran Taylor

We Are Saved Through The Blood of Christ

We have been redeemed. Jesus paid the price so that our sins could be forgiven and we would be able to enjoy eternal life with God. There is nothing we can do to make up for our sins. Salvation is a pure gift from God thanks to the sacrifice that Jesus made out of love for us. So, if salvation is a gift and we don't earn eternal life by our own merits, then what are we supposed to do? Listen to some of the words of today's psalm. "How shall I make a return to the Lord for all the good he has done for me? The cup of salvation I will take up, and I will call upon the name of the Lord...I will offer sacrifice of thanksgiving...my vows to the Lord I will pay." These words really spoke to me this week as there have been many times over the years that I have "bargained" with God! Please, God, if you will do this for me than I will do this for you! Have you ever said something like that? More to the point, have you followed through? I know that there have been times when I have failed to follow through on the promises I have made but God has never failed me. He may not have answered my pleas in the manner I wished, but he always answered in the way that was best for me in the long run. It's good to be reminded to say "thank you" more often for the great gift that is salvation. It is good to reflect on the Eucharist we celebrate and receive. We are partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ. Just as the apostles at the Last Supper, we don't always understand what Jesus was doing, but we know enough so that we should never take this gift for granted.

LECTIO DIVINA

Lectio Divina leads to the understanding that Jesus Christ is the heart of the Scriptures. In Scripture, we seek Jesus, who is the way, the truth, and the life. We discover that every word of the Bible bears witness to the living Word who is Christ. And through Lectio Divina, we enter into a heartfelt conversation with him. Starting this week, we will be meeting to learn about and pray 'Lectio Divina'. Everyone is welcome to join us from 6:30pm to 7:30pm on the first and third Mondays in the rooms next to the St. Mary's Chapel. Our next gathering is Monday, June 15. Questions? Please speak with Fr. Brian.

Sacred Heart St. Francis of Assisi gardens have been cultivated and planted as well as 4 window boxes and one large urn.

Watering volunteers are needed. Harry Chakoutis has already volunteered, Thanks Harry!

It would be great if we could have several more volunteers. If you are willing to help out please call Mary Jane or Dave Solimine, Sr. at (781) 592-0186.
