Fr. Kevin’s Reflection

In his book Render Unto Caesar, Archbishop Charles Chaput (now in Philadelphia) points out that too few Catholics living in Germany in the 1930’s listened to the warning of the then Pope Pius XI, who told them, “What is morally indefensible can never contribute to the good of the people.”

He was referring to the way Adolph Hitler, as the political leader of Germany, was gathering up all the Jews and many Catholics: practicing unethical human experimentation, enslaving them in concentration camps, murdering them in gas chambers and then burning their bodies in huge furnaces.

Did Hitler have a bright vision for the German people, that they would one day be world leaders? Yes.

Did Hitler’s plan give jobs to most of the German people so they could make a living for their families by making war supplies? Yes.

The only problem was that Hitler’s plan included the grave moral evil of genocide ... the mass extermination of the Jewish people and any others deemed “inhuman”. Nevertheless, because of fear, ignorance and selfishness, many Germans looked the other way when it came to the evils that Hitler was advocating. Not only were innocent, defenseless people being tortured and murdered; but, also, he was having his doctors perform all kinds of experimentation on the Jewish captives.

Pope Pius XI scolded the people who allowed this, saying: “Thousands of voices ring in your ears a false gospel which has not been revealed by the Father in Heaven.” (Mit Brennender Sorge, 1937) Here ... we are 70 years later ... and we as a people still struggle in having solidarity when it comes to life and liberty. As we approach our 239 year of celebrating our freedom as a nation (...given to us “by a group of old white men” ... as the nescient proclaim), it would be a good time to remember the words of Thomas Jefferson (who helped draft our Country’s Declaration of Independence and who served as the Third President of America), when he said: “The God who gave us Life, gave us Liberty!”

How wonderful that the Founding Fathers of our country recognized God as the Giver of these great gifts, which we have enjoyed, and which we hope to preserve for the future. Sadly, there are Americans running at every level of public office with plans which oppose God and life and liberty!

Posted on the front entry bulletin board is the Bowdle general church cleaning, there are tasks assigned for each band. Cleaning should be completed by June 30th. If you have any questions you may talk to your band chairperson, Karen Karst or Cathy Thomas. You are welcomed to make this a family event for this annual cleaning. Some tasks may only take a couple of minutes to do; others may take a bit more effort. Fr Kevin wanted to let you know, he has cleaned out the rectory rain gutters. Thanks Fr Kevin! Please be sure to mark done when a task is finished.

Make plans to attend the Legacy Event in Sioux Falls Aug 14-16. The organizers are excited for your arrival and are wanting you to pre-register by July 17th to plan for materials, meals and seating, etc; there is a fee of $50/individual or $100/Family to attend the keynote speakers, Children's Activities, Matt Maher Concert, Saturday breakout sessions, Ken Davis Performance and Family Festival! Come Celebrate 125 years of parish life on the prairies of South Dakota at this once-in-a-lifetime event!

"There is nothing more powerful than prayer and fasting in the battle for true justice in our country. It is the hope of the bishops that these efforts will encourage real solidarity among all people who are standing for the precious gifts of life, marriage and religious liberty."

Word of Life Intercessions for Life

June 21, 2015 Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

For fathers who struggle:

May the Love of Jesus inspire them to love their children unconditionally;

We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

Spring & Summer Attire – Now that springtime is in the air this is a good time to remember summer will be coming upon us. Of course, the dog days of summer begin the process of changing the winter clothes out with the lighter (more breathable) summer wear. But, before we put everything away...make sure you keep the more appropriate clothes in your closet for church. It is very important to remember: what you may be wearing on the beach or on the deck next to the swimming pool is not the appropriate attire for church. As you begin to sort what to store and what to keep, be sure to leave in your closet clothes that are comfortable...but at the same time...“dressy” in nature. Don't be stuck with tank tops, t-shirts and shorts as your only option. It is important to be comfortable...but not too comfortable...standing before God. Give more honor and respect than you give a prom date.
