BLOOD DRIVE

Our next blood drive will be held on Wednesday, July 29, 2015 in Christ the King Church Hall

Some random thoughts by the pastor ...

The focus of our readings this weekend is on the Passover* and the legal covenant that was developed from this event. (*Passover recalls the night when every first born dies in Egypt except for the first born of the Hebrews who put blood from a slaughtered lamb on their door lintels. Hence the reference to ‘passing over’.) Jesus, in the gospels, shares a Passover meal with his disciples on the night that he is arrested. The gospels link this final meal to ‘the sacrificing of the lamb’ that takes place in our first reading. Jesus, then, is presented as ‘the sacrificial lamb’. Another emphasis exists, however, one that Jesus highlights: the communal and relational dimension of the Passover meal. It is - originally - this emphasis that is in the forefront when many of the first followers come together to celebrate ‘the breaking of bread’. It is where the name ‘Communion’ originates, i.e. acting out the reality that God in Jesus the Christ is in UNION with us. Note that the emphasis is not on US, it is on GOD. It is God who initiates and forms union with us. As we practice living this reality (by receiving Communion, for example) we begin to recognize (hopefully) that God’s relationship with us can never be individualistic. It must always be COMMUNAL. Though some THINK that THEY can relate with God individually (a side effect of devotional prayer), and as a result insulate and isolate themselves from other people by being critical and judgmental, today’s feast tells us something different. We (as Saint Paul declares repeatedly) are the BODY of CHRIST. That is, because God is in union with us we cannot help but be in union with each other. Each time we receive Communion, then, we are practicing living not as individuals but as people who are in communion with each other. It is for this reason that the Church strongly encourages all of us to celebrate with each other at least weekly, so that we can practice (which we definitely need to do) living God’s union with us and our union with each other. God is good.

Parish updates: The crack in the parking lot side of the church has been repaired. The cost of the job was $2,500. Fifteen layers of bricks were replaced and the joint on the interior of the building was cleaned and refilled with a flexible material. Most activities are now coming to an end for the summer months. The meeting for Boy Scouts, Girls Scouts, and Cub Scouts will end when schools close for the summer. Grandma’s Attic, however, will continue to open on Monday (12:00-7:00pm); Wednesday (12:00-6:00pm); and Saturday (9:00am-1:00pm). Joyful Noise, also, continues to offer (extended) hours to young people during the summer break.
