DECLARATIO

Dear Brothers,

I have convoked you to this Consistory, not only for the three canonizations, but also to communicate to you a decision of great importance for the life of the Church. After having repeatedly examined my conscience before God, I have come to the certainty that my strengths, due to an advanced age, are no longer suited to an adequate exercise of the Petrine ministry. I am well aware that this ministry, due to its essential spiritual nature, must be carried out not only with words and deeds, but no less with prayer and suffering. However, in today's world, subject to so many rapid changes and shaken by questions of deep relevance for the life of faith, in order to govern the barque of Saint Peter and proclaim the Gospel, both strength of mind and body are necessary, strength which in the last few months, has deteriorated in me to the extent that I have had to recognize my incapacity to adequately fulfill the ministry entrusted to me. For this reason, and well aware of the seriousness of this act, with full freedom I declare that I renounce the ministry of Bishop of Rome, Successor of Saint Peter, entrusted to me by the Cardinals on 19 April 2005, in such a way, that as from 28 February 2013, at 20:00 hours, the See of Rome, the See of Saint Peter, will be vacant and a Conclave to elect the new Supreme Pontiff will have to be convoked by those whose competence it is. Dear Brothers, I thank you most sincerely for all the love and work with which you have supported me in my ministry and I ask pardon for all my defects. And now, let us entrust the Holy Church to the care of Our Supreme Pastor, Our Lord Jesus Christ, and implore his holy Mother Mary, so that she may assist the Cardinal Fathers with her maternal solicitude, in electing a new Supreme Pontiff. With regard to myself, I wish to also devotedly serve the Holy Church of God in the future through a life dedicated to prayer.

From the Vatican, 10 February 2013

BENEDICTUS PP XVI

CARDINAL SODANO EXPRESSES COLLEGE OF CARDINALS' NEARNESS TO POPE

Vatican City, 11 February 2013 (VIS) - Cardinal Angelo Sodano, dean of the College of Cardinals, on hearing the news of the Pope's resignation from the Petrine ministry, expressed his nearness, and that of all the cardinals, to Benedict XVI.

"We have heard you," he said, "with a sense of loss and almost disbelief. In your words we see the great affection that you have always had for God's Holy Church, for this Church that you have loved so much. Now, let me say, on behalf of this apostolic cenacle - the College of Cardinals - on behalf of your beloved collaborators, allow me to say that we are closer than ever to you, as we have been during these almost eight luminous years of your pontificate. On 19 April 2005, if I remember correctly, at the end of the conclave I asked, 'Do you accept your canonical election as Supreme Pontiff?' And you did not hesitate, although moved with emotion, to answer that you accepted, trusting in the Lord's grace and the maternal intercession of Mary, Mother of the Church. Like Mary on that day she gave her 'yes', and your luminous pontificate began, following in the wake of continuity, in that continuity with your 265 predecessors in the Chair of Peter, over two thousand years of history from the Apostle Peter, the humble Galilean fisherman, to the great popes of the last century from St. Pius X to Blessed John Paul II."

"Holy Father, before 28 February, the day that, as you have said, you wish to place the word 'end' to your pontifical service, conducted with so much love and so humbly, before 28 February, we will be able to better express our feelings. So too will the many pastors and faithful throughout the world, so too all those of good will together with the authorities of many countries. Also, still this month, we will have the joy of listening to your voice as pastor: Ash Wednesday, Thursday with the clergy of Rome, in the Sunday Angelus, and the Wednesday general audiences, we will still have many occasions to hear your paternal voice. Your mission, however, will continue. You have said that you will always be near us with your witness and your prayer. Of course, the stars always continue to shine and so will the star of your pontificate always shine among us. We are near to you, Holy Father, and we ask you to bless us."

Lenten Fast and Abstinence-

During the Season of Lent, the Church urges all the Faithful to reflect a spirit in penance in their daily life through performing acts of fast and abstinence.

"FASTING" requires that only one full meal be taken per day. Two smaller meals may be taken during the day to maintain physical strength, but these two meals together should not equal a full meal in quantity. Fasting obliges all those who have reached the age of 18 and continues to oblige until age 59. Those not specifically obliged to fast are encouraged to join in the discipline of fasting to the extent that they are able.

"ABSTINENCE" prohibits individuals from eating meat on a particular day. Abstinence obliges all those who have reached the age of 14 and continues to oblige throughout their entire life. Those not specifically obliged to abstain from eating meat are encouraged to join in this discipline to the extent that they are able.

GOOD FRIDAY is a day of fast and abstinence.

FRIDAYS during Lent are days of abstinence.

TODAY'S READINGSFirst Reading — God brought us into this land flowing with milk and honey (Deuteronomy 26:4-10).Psalm — Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble (Psalm 91).Second Reading — The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (Romans 10:8-13).Gospel — Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus was led into the desert for forty days (Luke 4:1-13).Saint Peter Damian*Doctor of the Church

Born at Ravenna, Italy, of poor parents, Peter did farm work and tended swine in his youth. When his great intelligence was recognized, he was sent away to study at Faenza and Parma. In 1035 he entered the Benedictine hermitage at Fonte Avellia, where he began to live a life of prayer and austerity. About the year 1043 he was chosen prior and spent the next several years establishing new monasteries and reforming old ones, becoming famous as an uncompromising preacher of holiness to clergy and laity alike. In 1057 he was made Cardinal Bishop of Ostia much against his will, adopting the name "Damian" in gratitude to his brother of that name who had financed his education. St. Peter was sent several times on diplomatic missions to France and Germany. He died on a journey back to his native town, Ravenna, which he had reconciled to the pope. During his life, Peter enjoyed great authority owing to his learning, zeal, and unquestionable integrity. He never tired of denouncing immorality and dishonesty when he found such among the clergy. His writings treat of spiritual but also of doctrinal issues such as purgatory, the Eucharist, and the validity of sacraments administered by unworthy priests. In 1828 Pope Leo XII extended his feast to the universal Church and named him Doctor of the Church.

CINCO PASOS PARA UNA BUENA CONFESION

1. Examen de conciencia.
2. Se sincero y arrepíentete de tus pecados.
3. Confiesa tus pecados a un sacerdote.
4. Resuelve y arregla tu vida.
5. Después de tu confesión, haz la penitencia asignada por el sacerdote.

Pasos para la confesion. "Tu dices"

-Bendígame padre en esta confesión. "Tu dices" que no te has confesado desde la última confesión) y empieza a decir tus pecados.

-Entonces di tus pecados mortales y el tiempo de veces cometidos. Si tu no tienes pecados mortales que confesar entonces confiesa los veniales que has cometido desde tu última confesión.

-Cuandos hayas terminado de confesar tus pecados, tu dices "Por estos y todos los pecados que he cometido, yo estoy verdaderamente arrepentido.

-El sacerdote ahora te dará el consejo necesario tienes que decir el Acto de Contrición. Entonces espera y escucha que el padre te de la absolución.

-Entonces tu dices "Gracias padre". Luego levántate del confesionario y empieza a hacer tu penitencia.
