ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH

FROM FR. MIKE:

When Jesus says in today's gospel that he will send an "Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth," he is speaking about the Holy Spirit. These words he is sharing are in that part of John's Gospel known as the Farewell Discourse, a series of sayings and teachings that Jesus gives after the Last Supper and before his Passion. So when he is saying that the Holy Spirit will be with his apostles in the future, for us he is with us now. We have already received the Holy Spirit in our baptism and have been sealed with the gifts of the Holy Spirit in our Confirmation. Every Catholic is therefore charismatic, not in the sense of being a church that is constantly singing songs of praise, lifting up their hands in prayer, or even speaking in tongues. It also does not mean we all have dynamic personalities or are animated in our speech. Being charismatic means we are guided by the Holy Spirit in the ways of Jesus as a people of hope. So as we continue to live in the reality of Christ's resurrection this Easter season, let us also continue to enjoy the Holy Spirit's ongoing presence in our lives.

DEL PADRE MIGUEL:

Cuando Jesús dice en el evangelio de hoy que enviará un "Abogado para estar siempre con vosotros, el Espíritu de verdad", está hablando del Espíritu Santo. Estas palabras que está compartiendo están en esa parte del Evangelio de Juan conocida como el Discurso de despedida, una serie de dichos y enseñanzas que Jesús da después de la Última Cena y antes de su Pasión. Así que cuando él está diciendo que el Espíritu Santo estará con sus apóstoles en el futuro, para nosotros él está con nosotros ahora. Ya hemos recibido el Espíritu Santo en nuestro bautismo y hemos sido sellados con los dones del Espíritu Santo en nuestra Confirmación. Por lo tanto, todo católico es carismático, no en el sentido de ser una iglesia que está constantemente cantando canciones de alabanza, levantando sus manos en oración, o incluso hablando en lenguas. Tampoco significa que todos tengamos personalidades dinámicas o que seamos apasionados en nuestro discurso. Ser carismático significa que somos guiados por el Espíritu Santo en los caminos de Jesús como pueblo de esperanza. Así como continuamos viviendo en la realidad de la resurrección de Cristo en esta época de Pascua, continuemos gozando de la presencia continua del Espíritu Santo en nuestras vidas.
