FRUITFUL HARVEST

As of today Monterey has $16,525 pledges and payments towards getting to 90% of our goal which is $17,414. The actual goal is $19,348. As of today Kewanna has $5,778 in pledges and payments towards getting to 90% of our goal which is $6,544. The actual goal is $7,271. I am pretty well done trying to track people down and having people avoid me. If you are able to make a pledge then please do so soon. Neither parish can afford to make up that gap.

A SHORT REFLECTION

Jesus' teachings about human relations described the interactions that characterize the kingdom of heaven. As in the earlier part of this discourse, these are wisdom sayings, not juridical pronouncements. They present a design for living with specific examples that can be applied to other situations as well. What underlies the whole is a profoundly reverential approach to relationships, to our dealings with those with whom we share community or family, and those with whom we deal in day to day situations. The real subject of Jesus' teaching here is about the heart we put into every human interaction.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Following the Jubilee Year of Mercy, many remarried Catholics continue to wait in hope for a Vatican change that would allow them to return to the sacraments. Some church leaders would see Jesus' preaching in today's Gospel as a hard line. That doesn't make things easier for change. Marriage is once and forever. Case closed. Yet the reality of the world of 2017 has become much different than that of the world of the first century Christians. Divorces now claim more than half of all marriages. Non-married families are increasing and many couples just live together. The acceptance of same-sex marriage adds another dimension to the milieu. Pope John Paul II never tired of reminding us: "The future of humanity depends on marriage and the family." Standing chest deep in the outgoing tide, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops has made marriage and family issues a top priority.

WINTER WEATHER

I would like everyone to use good common sense in terms of trying to get to Mass on the weekends, if the roads are bad then please stay home and be safe. If either Pulaski or Fulton Counties declares a snow emergency then stay home, it is illegal to be on the roads. Personally, I have a vehicle that is very good in snow and I will do my best to get to church for Mass. If the roads are really bad, I will stay home, and you should have stayed home. Discretion is the better part of valor.

SUNDAY READINGS

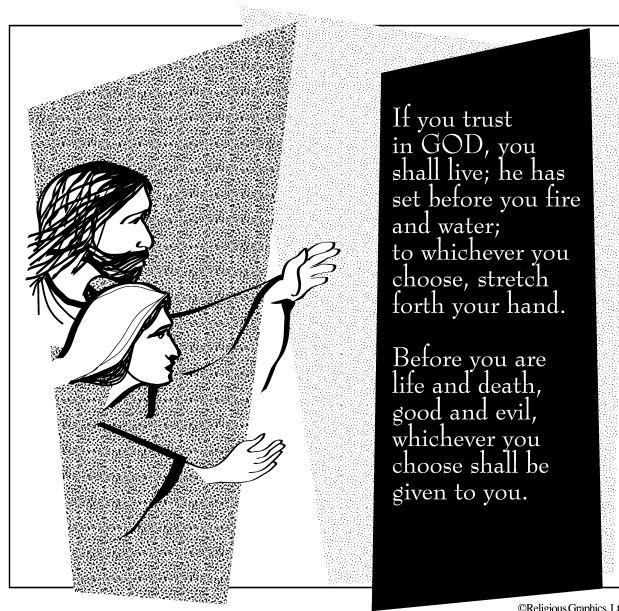

To better prepare yourself to listen to the word of the Lord for next Sunday, please read and meditate on the readings this week, they are: Leviticus 19:1-2,17-18 Be holy as God is holy. 1 Corinthians 3:16-23 You are the temple of God. Matthew 5:38-48 Turn the other cheek; love your enemy.
