FRUITFUL HARVEST

Is the program our Diocese uses to support the diocesan offices and the various ministries that they are required to provide. It is also the way that we support the works of the universal church. I am not going to make any more phone calls asking for support or knock on doors. Reaching the goal is the responsibility of our parishes. And we are way short of that goal. If you are able to make a pledge then please do so soon. Neither parish can afford to make up that gap.

CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS

The 2016 contribution statements are now available. If you would like yours, please call Fr. Bert at 574-946-3453.

A SHORT REFLECTION

Jesus showed us the powerlessness of brutality by proving that life prevails: he rose from the dead and the cross became a symbol of life. But as Paul admits, his message seems foolish to the world. Nevertheless, from the time of Moses on, God has called a people to be holy, which ultimately means to be caught up in and by love. Jesus' message in today's Gospel is that we were made for more than pettiness and futility, and that no power on earth can demean us to the point of erasing our humanity.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

After decades of dialogue with Muslim leaders, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs said, "Still, it is our belief that the most efficient way to work toward ending or at least curtailing such violence and prejudice is through building networks of dialogue that can overcome ignorance, extremism, and discrimination and so lead to friendship and trust with Muslims. These efforts come at a time when our contemporary culture appears to encourage divisiveness and discord. For example, often the rhetoric is that all Muslims believe that radical Islamic Jihad is an acceptable response to all believers. Yet the vast majority of Muslims in America (of which there are an estimated nine million) denounce the terrorism of the radical jihadists and claim no connection with radial Islam. As we have journeyed through the Gospel of Matthew these past weeks, you may have concluded by now that living the Gospel of Jesus is very demanding. Today is no exception as we are encouraged not to be "driven by fear" but to love our enemies and build friendship and trust especially with those we see as other. Jesus offers us a great challenge.

THE CATHOLIC MOMENT

The Holy Family Foundation is partially funding subscriptions for St. Anne's in Monterey. This year they are unable to fully fund it as in the past. Also the cost of The Catholic Moment is now $22 which is the first increase in cost in ten years. To help keep costs as low as possible, The Catholic Moment has streamlined their operations, one full time position has been eliminated and another person is now part time. So please use the envelope for The Catholic Moment that is in your packet with a $22 check to help keep The Catholic Moment coming to your mailbox.

WINTER WEATHER

I would like everyone to use good common sense in terms of trying to get to Mass on the weekends, if the roads are bad then please stay home and be safe. If either Pulaski or Fulton Counties declares a snow emergency then stay home, it is illegal to be on the roads. Personally, I have a vehicle that is very good in snow and I will do my best to get to church for Mass. If the roads are really bad, I will stay home, and you should have stayed home. Discretion is the better part of valor.

SUNDAY READINGS

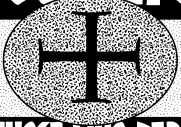

To better prepare yourself to listen to the word of the Lord for next Sunday, please read and meditate on the readings this week, they are: Isaiah 49:14-15 "I will never forget you." 1 Corinthians 4:1-5 Only God can judge us. Matthew 6:24-34 "Do not worry about tomorrow."

MEDICAL MISSION TO HATI

For this year was a great success. All of our goals were completed and medication was left behind to help our brothers and sisters in Haiti over the coming year. Plans are already being made for the Mission in 2018. The construction of our own clinical space will be completed before we go back. We have three clinical exam tables (just like you would see at your doctor's office) that we are making plans to ship down to Haiti for our new clinic.
