ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH

FROM FR. MIKE:

A helpful way of thinking about Lent is to consider how we welcome Jesus into our lives. As we do so, we must first confront how we may also welcome Satan, or more specifically his deceptions, into our lives. While I believe it is safe to say that none of us are worshipping the devil, nonetheless we all are capable of thinking that we are stronger than evil because "I am a good person." This falls into one of many delusions that the enemy puts into our heads. The devil, whose name means "one who falsely accuses," is constantly feeding us lies about God, and what makes it more difficult is that he usually packages these lies in half-truths. While all of us are good persons, for example, we are incapable of resisting evil without God's grace. Another example is in today's first reading when the snake convinces Eve and Adam that the knowledge of good and evil is something God wants for them. The problem that this original sin created for all of us is the notion that, with this knowledge, we do not need God and can take care of ourselves. This Lent will go well for us only we first say, "Get away Satan" and avoid placing ourselves into situations that we know will increase temptations. Then we even more willingly welcome Christ since only he, who conquered sin and death, is more powerful than any evil.

DEL PADRE MIGUEL:

Una manera útil de pensar sobre la Cuaresma es considerar cómo recibimos a Jesús en nuestras vidas. A medida que lo hacemos, debemos confrontar primero cómo podemos también recibir a Satanás, o más específicamente a sus engaños, en nuestras vidas. Aunque creo que es seguro decir que ninguno de nosotros está adorando al diablo, sin embargo todos somos capaces de pensar que somos más fuertes que el mal porque "somos una buena persona". Esto cae en uno de muchos delirios que el enemigo pone en nuestras cabezas. El diablo, cuyo nombre significa "el que falsamente acusa", está constantemente alimentándonos de mentiras acerca de Dios, y lo que lo hace más difícil es que suele enmascarar estas mentiras en medias verdades. Si bien todos nosotros somos buenas personas, por ejemplo, somos incapaces de resistir el mal sin la gracia de Dios. Otro ejemplo es en la primera lectura de hoy cuando la serpiente convence a Eva y Adán de que el conocimiento del bien y del mal es algo que Dios quiere para ellos. El problema que este pecado original creó para todos nosotros es la noción de que, con este conocimiento, no necesitamos a Dios y podemos cuidar de nosotros mismos. Esta Cuaresma irá bien para nosotros solo que tenemos que decir primero, "Retírate, Satanás." y evita colocarnos en situaciones que sabemos que aumentarán las tentaciones. Entonces recibimos aún más voluntariamente a Cristo, porque sólo él, que conquistó el pecado y la muerte, es más poderoso que cualquier mal.
