SUNDAY READINGS

To better prepare yourself to listen to the word of the Lord for next Sunday, please read and meditate on the readings this week, they are: Deuteronomy 8:2-3,14b-16a Remember how God fed the Israelites in the desert. 1 Corinthians 10:16-17 We are one body when we share in the Eucharist. John 6:51-58 "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life."

A SHORT REFLECTION

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity celebrates God revealed simply as "God for us." God gave Moses a limited vision but still so overwhelming that his face, his very soul, would never be the same. In Christ we have received the ultimate image of God's unceasing, invincible and overwhelming love. Paul reminds us that to the extent that we believe in that revelation, God's Spirit can work in and through us, thereby allowing the love of God to be ever more present in our world.

VACATION

If all has gone as planned, I will be on vacation for about ten days visiting friends near Terre Haute. I will be returning on June 20th. Fr. Mike Kettrin, a retired priest of the diocese will be taking care of Masses over the next two weekends.

MASS INTENTIONS

We are getting desperately low on Mass intentions, especially those that can be said at weekday Masses at Monterey, we are now a little bit ahead at Kewanna.

SEMINARIAN FUND APPEAL

This special appeal will once again be conducted to help defray the increased cost for seminarian education not otherwise being paid by the current Seminarian Fund and Fruitful Harvest. As men for our diocese accept Our Lord's invitation to discern priesthood, we have to meet the challenge of providing for them financially. When they enter the seminary, they become our responsibility in the diocese. Just as they step forward in faith, we too must stand with them. This appeal will take place again this weekend. The goal for St. Anne in Monterey is $978 and St. Ann in Kewanna is $367. Your support is very much appreciated.

PROJECTS AT KEWANNA

After consultation with the Parish Council and several parishioners we have decided to approve the contract we received from Arnette Concrete. This will entail removing and replacing the front steps. The work on this project should be well underway. We are also planning on doing some tuck pointing above the front entrance to prevent some water leaks that we have had recently and some other places that need some attention. We still have a drainage issue at the door that goes down to the kitchen in the basement.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Understanding the significance of Trinity Sunday can be as simple as one-two-three. It begins with God the Father -- who gave us his only begotten Son; then Jesus who in turn promised that he would send us the Holy Spirit. All of that is declared every time we sign ourselves, saying "In the name of the Father; the Son and the Holy Spirit." Yet, the mystery of a triune God equally confounds the simple child and the wise old man as the well-known story of St. Augustine teaches us. One day while walking along the seashore, pondering the Trinity, Augustine encountered a boy pouring ocean water in a hole in the sand. The boy explained: "I am going to put the entire ocean into this hole." St. Augustine told him that it was impossible. The hole in the sand was too small to contain all of the vast ocean. Surprisingly, the boy replied, "And neither can you fit the Trinity into your little brain." When the boy vanished, St. Augustine realized he had been talking to an angel. We continue to walk by faith, affirming the Trinity every time we cross ourselves.
