ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH

FROM FR. MIKE:

St. Paul says in today's second reading, "For if by that one person's transgression the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one person Jesus Christ overflow for the many." What he is saying is that Jesus does not just match the evil of original sin with his goodness but exceeds it. The Revised New American Bible notes that "[s]in, as used in the singular by Paul, refers to the dreadful power that has gripped humanity, which is now in revolt against the Creator and engaged in the exaltation of its own desires and interests." This original sin can be thought of as a virus that we are born with that makes all of us rebel against God. Jesus, in contrast, is not just a cure for this virus, but gives us a share in eternal life, a life beyond having the absence of sin but the fullness and joy of having God's love, an "overflow for the many." When we experience this gift of eternal life from Jesus in a more ongoing way through our prayer and engagement with the sacraments, we better understand the need and compulsion we have to share Jesus with others. This is the ultimate welcoming and outreach we all can do by offering Christ to others, especially to those who are unchurched or otherwise not engaged in a relationship with him.

DEL PADRE MIGUEL:

San Pablo dice en la segunda lectura de hoy: "Pues si por el pecado de uno solo hombre todos fueron castigados con la muerte, por el don de un solo hombre, Jesucristo, se ha desbordado sobre todos la abundancia de la vida y la gracia de Dios." Lo que él está diciendo es Que Jesús no sólo iguala el mal del pecado original con su bondad, sino que lo supera. La Nueva Biblia Americana de la Biblia revisada señala que "pecado, como se utiliza en el singular por Pablo, se refiere al poder terrible que a esclavizado a la humanidad, que ahora está en rebelión contra el Creador y comprometido en la exaltación de sus propios deseos e intereses. "Este pecado original puede ser pensado como un virus con el que nacemos que nos hace rebelarnos contra Dios. Jesús, en cambio, no es sólo una cura para este virus, sino que nos da una participación en la vida eterna, una vida más allá de la ausencia del pecado, sino la plenitud y la alegría de tener el amor de Dios, un "desbordamiento para muchos". Experimentamos este don de vida eterna de Jesús de una manera más continua a través de nuestra oración y compromiso con los sacramentos, comprendemos mejor la necesidad y la compulsión que tenemos de compartir a Jesús con los demás. Esta es la mejor bien venida y extensión que nosotros podemos hacer, ofreciendo a Cristo a los demás, especialmente a aquellos que no tienen iglesia o que no están involucrados en una relación con él.
