ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH

FROM FR. MIKE:

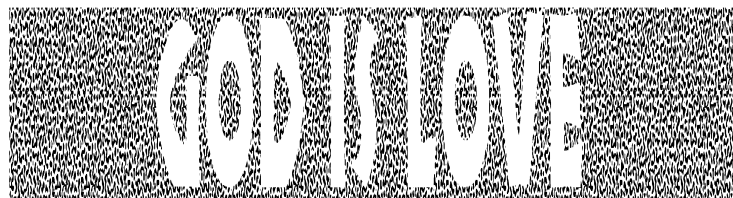

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." This line from the end of today's Gospel reading, which is often selected for funerals, is certainly a comfort to us, whether it is the burden of grief or the weight of other struggles in life. One of the subtle points in Jesus' words is that he does not promise a removal of the yoke, only that he will make it easy. He calls it "my yoke," not "your yoke," signifying that we are sharing in carrying the load that inevitably entails a life of love and service for the Lord. This weekend we welcome Fr. Tom Carroll, who is a part of the Piarist Fathers, a group that ministers in the Appalachian region of Kentucky. Our prayers and financial support assist their work, making us participants not only in their specific outreach to the people in Eastern Kentucky but in the overall mission of the church. Whenever one of us in the church, the Body of Christ, accompanies those who need material and spiritual help, we are all sharing in lightening their burden as Jesus promised he would for all of us.

DEL PADRE MIGUEL:

"Porque mi yugo es suave y mi carga, ligera". Esta línea de la lectura del Evangelio de hoy, que a menudo se selecciona para los funerales, es sin duda un consuelo para nosotros, ya sea la carga de la pena o el peso de otras cosas en la vida. Uno de los puntos sutiles en las palabras de Jesús es que él no promete un retiro del yugo, sólo que lo hará fácil. Él lo llama "mi yugo", no "su yugo", lo que significa que estamos compartiendo en llevar la carga que inevitablemente conlleva una vida de amor y servicio para el Señor. Este fin de semana damos la bienvenida al P. Tom Carroll, que es parte de los Padres Escolapios, un grupo que ministra en la región de los Apalaches de Kentucky. Nuestras oraciones y apoyo financiero ayudan a su trabajo, haciéndonos participantes no sólo en su alcance específico a la gente en Kentucky Oriental, sino en la misión general de la iglesia. Cada vez que uno de nosotros en la iglesia, el Cuerpo de Cristo, acompaña a aquellos que necesitan ayuda material y espiritual, todos estamos compartiendo en aliviar su carga como Jesús prometió que lo haría por todos nosotros.
