SUNDAY READINGS

To better prepare yourself to listen to the word of the Lord for next Sunday, please read and meditate on the readings this week, they are: Daniel 7:9-10,13-14 Daniel's inspiring vision in a time of persecution. 2 Peter 1:16-19 Christ has truly been sent from God. Matthew 17:1-9 Jesus exceeds the law and the prophets.

A SHORT REFLECTION

This is much more about what I need to do as a pastor and homilist. Perhaps some of us preachers must work at changing our own frames of mind. What are we trying to accomplish by the accumulated hours we spend in preparing our homilies and the environment in which they are delivered? Are we content to give our communities only an experience of the institutional church instead of God's kingdom among us? Our sacred Christian authors would certainly contend that if we are not into helping people change their value systems – to see what Jesus helped his followers to see, we are wasting our and their time.

WEEKDAY MASSES

By orders from my doctor, weekday Masses are cancelled until my health gets a lot better. The problem is that my energy level is minimal and that puts it mildly.

MASS INTENTIONS

I have received from the Diocese Mass Intentions that I can use for weekday Masses. I only have 5 Masses left on the books that I can schedule for weekend Masses at Monterey. Your help is sincerely appreciated.

FAMILY FUN NIGHT

at Monterey is Saturday, August 5th. There are packets of tickets for the Grand Raffle and meal tickets. There are envelopes for everyone in the parish. The purpose is to go out and sell those tickets to friends, neighbors, and family. There are also posters that need to be spread around the four county area. Your help is sincerely appreciated. For the Grand Raffle we have one of the best list of prizes ever. The meal will be the same as last year: pork sandwiches, with all the fixings and homemade cupcakes for dessert.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Dogs bury their treasured bones so that they can enjoy them later. Humans do the same thing, only their treasure is money. There must be plenty of coffee cans full of cash still buried in the backyards of rich old guys who didn't trust the banks. Who knows how many buried treasures lie undiscovered under the beaches of the Caribbean. There is the legend of Superstition Mountains near Apache Junction in Arizona. Legend has it that there's a hidden gold mine up there. The Superstition Mountains are a tourist attraction and each year thousands try to find the mine. Today's Gospel parable is a very clever buried treasure story. The discoverer buried the treasure in the field and then sold everything he had to buy that field. Jesus, of course, is using this story to remind us of the treasure of his kingdom and how we need to sell everything we have in order to possess it.

Solomon prayed,
"LORD, give me
an understanding heart."
