ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH

FROM FR. MIKE:

As I have been mentioning in my recent columns, Bishop Robert Barron has put out a podcast that is titled, "Five Reasons Catholics Don't Evangelize." (wordonfireshow.com/episode84). One excuse we all can have is that "I am not as smart as a priest or bishop." Bishop Barron reminds us all that, like anything in life, you have to practice to get better at it. By the way, remember that this is when the topic of church or spirituality comes up naturally in conversation and being ready to jump in. I believe this comes up enough organically that we do not need to figure out how to introduce the topic with others, other than perhaps mentioning when we participated in Mass or other church activities. Even we priests learn how to talk about the faith in ways that make sense to others through trial and error. In other words, over time we get better at sharing Christ with others as long as we do not wait until we are 100% ready. What you will find after engaging a person in the faith is that you will learn more for the next time when you need to look up afterwards whatever you did not know or could not explain very well. And over time you will develop your own style and expression of witnessing to the faith. Then today's Psalm will ring true for many who can then say, "I will hear what God proclaims; the LORD—for he proclaims peace."

DEL PADRE MIGUEL:

Como he estado mencionando en mis recientes columnas, el obispo Robert Barron publicó un podcast titulado, "5 razones por las que los católicos no evangelizan" (wordonfireshow.com/episode84). Una excusa que todos podemos tener es que "no soy tan inteligente como un sacerdote o un obispo". El Obispo Barron nos recuerda que, como cualquier cosa en la vida, hay que practicar para mejorar. Por cierto, recuerde que esto es cuando el tema de la iglesia o la espiritualidad surge de forma natural en una conversación y hay que estar listo para poder hacer fluir la conversación. Creo que esto viene lo suficientemente orgánico que no tenemos que averiguar cómo introducir el tema con los demás, aparte de mencionar cuando participamos en misa u otras actividades de la iglesia. Incluso nosotros, los sacerdotes, aprendemos a hablar de la fe en formas que tienen sentido para los demás a través de la prueba y el error. En otras palabras, con el tiempo mejoramos el compartir a Cristo con los demás, siempre y cuando no esperemos hasta que estemos 100% listos. Lo que encontrarás después de involucrar a una persona en la fe es que aprenderás más para la próxima vez cuando necesites buscar después lo que no sabías o no podía explicar muy bien. Y con el tiempo desarrollarás tu propio estilo y expresión de testimonio de la fe. Entonces el Salmo de hoy sonará verdadero para muchos que entonces pueden decir: "Oíré lo que Dios proclama; El Señor, porque proclama la paz."
