From Father Mike

On the Second Sunday of Lent, we always hear the story of the Transfiguration. I believe that Mark's version that we hear this year has an important message that is relevant to our Lenten journey. Remember Lent is a time to be renewed in our own baptism, so it is helpful to refer back to the story of Jesus' baptism in Mark. In that, a voice from the heavens says, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." When Jesus is transfigured in today's gospel, his clothes become dazzling white (just like a baptismal garment), and a similar voice comes from the cloud saying, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." As Mark adds the command—"Listen to him."—while Jesus stands with Moses and Elijah (symbols of the writings of the law and prophets), Mark is encouraging the disciples and all of us to listen to Jesus and pointing to the scriptures as a place to do that. If there is anything extra you want to try this Lent, read the bible and then also pray with those parts that touch your heart or grab your attention. And if you are not sure where exactly to begin, perhaps the gospel of Mark would work well for this Lent.

Del Padre Miguel

En el segundo domingo de la Cuaresma, siempre escuchamos la historia de la Transfiguración. Creo que la versión de Marcos que escuchamos este año tiene un mensaje importante que es apropiado para nuestro recorrido Cuaresmal. Recuerde que la Cuaresma es un tiempo para renovar nuestro propio bautismo, por lo que es útil referirse a la historia del bautismo de Jesús en Marcos. En eso, una voz de los cielos dice: "Tú eres mi Hijo amado; en ti tengo complacencia." Cuando Jesús se transfiguró en el evangelio de hoy, sus ropas se vuelven deslumbrantes y blancas (como una prenda bautismal), y una voz similar viene de la nube diciendo: "Este es mi Hijo amado. Escúchenlo." Mientras Marcos agrega la línea: "Escúchenlo." Mientras Jesús se encuentra con Moisés y Elias (símbolos de las escrituras de la ley y los profetas), Marcos anima a los discípulos y a todos nosotros a escuchar a Jesús y dirigiéndose a las Escrituras como un lugar para hacer eso. Si hay algo extra que desee intentar durante esta Cuaresma, lea la Biblia y luego ore también con aquellas partes que toquen su corazón o capten su atención. Y si no está seguro de dónde comenzar exactamente, tal vez el evangelio de Marcos funcionaría bien para esta Cuaresma.
