From Father Mike

Easter is an odd celebration because a common symbol for the resurrection is an empty tomb—not the most inspiring image or something you might use as a logo. The resurrection of Jesus is certainly a joy-filled reality in our daily lives, so you almost have to say that every day is Easter in order to be a true Christian. And one of the best ways to notice the Risen Lord's presence in our lives is to observe anywhere that we experience that profound joy that ultimately could only be caused by God's grace. This is more than a fleeting pleasure or momentary flash of happiness but an experience so deep of an infinite love that is present in our lives that it fills us with a sense of connection to true peace and a sense of awe at something that is so great, so undeserved, and so generous that could only come from God. It pushes us out of anything that would drag us into the petty life of sin or being distracted from our heavenly destiny after this earthly life. Our own emergence from the tomb leaves behind that side of our life as we "go to meet Jesus in Galilee" and are compelled to share our resurrection joy with others. May this Easter remind us that our daily journey is immersed in the eternal life won for us by Jesus' rising from the dead.

Del Padre Miguel

La Pascua es una celebración extraña porque un símbolo común para la resurrección es una tumba vacía, no la imagen más inspiradora o algo que podrías usar como logotipo. La resurrección de Jesús es ciertamente una realidad llena de gozo en nuestras vidas diarias, por lo que casi tenemos que decir que todos los días es Semana Santa para ser un verdadero cristiano. Y una de las mejores maneras de notar la presencia del Señor resucitado en nuestras vidas es observar en cualquier lugar que experimentemos ese gozo profundo que finalmente solo podría ser causado por la gracia de Dios. Esto es más que un placer fugaz o un destello momentáneo de felicidad, sino una experiencia tan profunda de un amor infinito que está presente en nuestras vidas que nos llena de un sentido de conexión con la paz verdadera y un sentido de asombro ante algo que es tan grande, tan inmerecido y tan generoso que solo podría provenir de Dios. Nos saca de cualquier cosa que nos arrastre a la pequeña vida de pecado o nos distraiga de nuestro destino celestial después de esta vida terrenal. Nuestro propio surgimiento de la tumba deja atrás ese lado de nuestra vida cuando "Vamos a encontrarnos con Jesús en Galilea" y nos vemos obligados a compartir nuestra alegría de resurrección con los demás. Que esta Pascua nos recuerde que nuestro viaje diario está inmerso en la vida eterna que nos ganó al resucitar de Jesús a los muertos.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Next Sunday, Apr. 8 we will celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday with a Holy Hour of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament 2:30-3:30pm in the church. The Chaplet of Divine Mercy will be prayed at the customary time of 3:00 during this Holy Hour.

EL DOMINGO DE LA DIVINA MISERICORDIA

El domingo próximo 8 de Abril celebramos el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia con una Hora Santa de Adoración al Santísimo de 2:30-3:30 PM en la iglesia. Rezaremos la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia a las 3:00, la hora tradicional para esto, durante esta Hora Santa.
