ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH

FROM FR. MIKE:

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. It always occurs two Sundays after Pentecost, and at each of the Masses we are commissioning many from our parish to be Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist for the next twelve months. This means that when there is not enough Ordinary Ministers (priests and deacons) that are present, then those who are commissioned by the bishop as Extraordinary Ministers can help administer the Eucharist to the faithful. I feel our parish has been blessed with several of these ministers who have recently answered the call to bring the Blessed Sacrament to the sick or those who cannot physically come to the church. This increase of volunteers over just this past year has matched an increase of those needing someone to bring them communion, ensuring that they have someone from the parish making contact with them on an almost weekly basis. What an important witness to being a welcoming community that we have so many willing to bring Christ to those who cannot bring themselves to Mass. I would encourage any of you that are not helping with this ministry or any of the other ways you can assist occasionally at Mass, such as being a hospitality minister, reader, server, or cantor, to consider how you can add to our celebration of the Eucharist. Those who feel unworthy need to remember that none of us are worthy of the ministry we find ourselves serving in (especially us priests!), for God does not call the holy but makes holy those he calls.

DEL PADRE MIGUEL:

Este fin de semana celebramos la Solemnidad del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Siempre ocurre dos domingos después del Pentecostés, y en cada una de las Misas estamos encargando a muchos de nuestra parroquia que sean Ministros Extraordinarios de la Eucaristía durante los próximos doce meses. Esto significa que cuando no hay suficientes Ministros Ordinarios (sacerdotes y diáconos) presentes, entonces aquellos que son comisionados por el obispo como Ministros Extraordinarios pueden ayudar a administrar la Eucaristía a los fieles. Siento que nuestra parroquia ha sido bendecida con varios de estos ministros que recientemente han respondido a la llamada para traer el Santísimo Sacramento a los enfermos o aquellos que no pueden llegar físicamente a la iglesia. Este aumento de voluntarios en el último año ha igualado un aumento de aquellos que necesitan a alguien para llevarles la comunión, asegurando que alguien de la parroquia haga contacto con ellos sobre una base casi semanal. Qué importante es ser testigo de una comunidad de bienvenida que tenemos a tantos dispuestos a traer a Cristo a aquellos que no pueden venir a la Misa. Yo animaría a cualquiera de ustedes que no están ayudando con este ministerio o cualquiera de las otras maneras en que usted puede ayudar de vez en cuando En la Misa, como ser ministro de la hospitalidad, lector, servidor o cantor, para considerar cómo puede ayudar a nuestra celebración de la Eucaristía. Aquellos que se sienten indignos deben recordar que ninguno de nosotros es digno del ministerio en el que nos encontramos sirviendo (¡especialmente los sacerdotes!), Porque Dios no llama a los santos, sino que hace santos a los que llama.
