FRUITFUL HARVEST

I have not given up on reaching our goals. I have been making phone calls and it has been difficult in trying to find people at home. As of today Monterey has $16,025 pledges and payments towards getting to 90% of our goal which is $17,414. The actual goal is $19,348. As of today Kewanna has $5,578 in pledges and payments towards getting to 90% of our goal which is $6,544. The actual goal is $7,271. If you have not yet made a pledge please do so soon. Neither parish can afford to make up that gap.

WINTER WEATHER

I would like everyone to use good common sense in terms of trying to get to Mass on the weekends, if the roads are bad then please stay home and be safe. If either Pulaski or Fulton Counties declares a snow emergency then stay home, it is illegal to be on the roads. Personally, I have a vehicle that is very good in snow and I will do my best to get to church for Mass. If the roads are really bad, I will stay home, and you should have stayed home. Discretion is the better part of valor.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

“Love at first sight” is a popular theme in books, movies, operas and music. In South Pacific we hear: “Some enchanted evening,” West Side Story gives us the instantaneous yet tragic connection between Tony and Maria. Shakespeare created Romeo and Juliet. Mozart’s opera The Magic Flute tells us the story of love-struck Tamino and Pamina. Some say there’s no such thing as love at first sight. Yet, we have the ability to size up fast. Big brown eyes, wisps of hair, and a jaunty smile are the first compelling forces that draw us to enter a life-changing relationship. Jesus has that charisma. He draws us into a life-changing relationship. John the Baptist only had to point him out to his future disciples. “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.” And they ran after him.

A SHORT REFLECTION

This week's readings lead us into the season of Ordinary Time with a reflection on who we are called to be as Christians. They remind us that being a Christian is never a solo-performance. We are called together, formed by the word of God to become a light to the nations. Like John the Baptist, we are called not for ourselves, but to be able to point out the Lamb of God to others. When we know and accept that vocation, we can call ourselves the church of God in our own hometown and in our world.

SUNDAY READINGS

To better prepare yourself to listen to the word of the Lord for next Sunday, please read and meditate on the readings this week, they are: Isaiah 8:23-9:3 The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. 1 Corinthians 1:10-13,17 Paul urges unity among the dissenting Corinthians. Matthew 4:12-23 Jesus begins his ministry.
