Centering Prayer

Centering Prayer, resting silently in God, facilitates the process of inner transformation. Our prayer without words is one of intention to surrender to God's presence and action in our lives and desire for a closer relationship with God. Join us on Wednesdays, 6:00pm–7:00pm, in the IC Charity Dining Room. For information please contact Elizabeth McCarthy, 978-462-7483 or see our website.

From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

As you read this, our Pilgrimage group will be in Athens, readying ourselves for our tour of the capital city of Greece and our eventual Mass and journey to Corinth the next day. Although I am sure the trip will have its challenges, it will be an amazing opportunity to pray and reflect on how St. Paul helped to spread the Gospel out into the wider world beyond Jerusalem and Palestine.

As part of my personal preparation for this adventure, I am finishing reading an excellent book entitled, Paul: His Story by Jerome Murphy-O'Connor (Oxford University Press, 2006). Rather than a dry biblical commentary (and trust me, sometimes they can be very dry!) this book is more of a narrative of Paul's life with many details and life-scenarios imagined or filled-in by Murphy-O'Connor's extensive knowledge of Scripture and Mediterranean life from the First Century. It is an easy read, but filled with a great deal of richness and plenty of vivid details from Paul's life and journeys as testified in the Bible. It is a three-dimensional portrayal of Paul as a person, a Pharisee, a Christian convert and finally as our Church's greatest Apostle. For those who were not able to join us on this Pilgrimage but want to have a taste of Paul's missionary journeys, this is an excellent read! Of course, Paul's many letters in the New Testament as well as the Book of Acts itself are must-reads too!

Many of you have asked myself and others going on the trip to pray for you and your families as we make our way around the Aegean Sea. I want to assure all of you that our Pilgrimage is a journey of faith and prayer and we will be praying for all in our Collaborative as we visit and celebrate Mass in the various sites that Paul first preached the Gospel. Our prayers and liturgies along the way will give us many opportunities to carry all of you and your needs in our hearts. I would ask you to please pray for us as well. I look forward to being able to share with you many stories and insights that were gained when we return.

I will be praying in a particular way for our nation in these final days leading up to the elections on November 8. I am voting early before leaving on the Pilgrimage, just in case our travel plans get delayed in any way. Like all of you, I have found this year's choices to be excruciatingly difficult to make, and have spent many weeks thinking, praying, and engaging in many conversations with others about what is the right path to follow. As I mentioned several weeks ago in another bulletin column, I think our choices must flow from our well-formed consciences. So, think hard, pray hard and go with confidence into the voting booths next week. I invite you to join with me in asking for God's blessing on us all in the midst of this process.

Prayerful best wishes,

Fr. Timothy Harrison
Pastor

Day Pilgrimage to the Cathedral of the Holy Cross

November 12, 2016

"Pope Francis invites each of us to become 'merciful like the Father' as part of the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy. As we journey together with Catholics around the world, make a pilgrimage, pass through our Holy Door of Mercy and worship the Lord Jesus who tenderly loves each one of us." (Sean Cardinal O'Malley OFM Cap)

Be a partner in prayer and receive the Jubilee Indulgence from home

The Holy Door If you or a loved one is unable to join our Collaborative family for this pilgrimage to Boston, Pope Francis encourages the homebound, the infirm, or the elderly to participate with us:

- by uniting your prayers with those of the Holy Father
- by making a profession of Faith
- by reflecting on the mercy of God
- by offering joyfully personal sufferings
- by receiving the Eucharist or sharing in a communal prayer (TV Mass)

For more information on the Jubilee Year of Mercy, visit uscgb.org or visit our Collaborative website hricatholic.org

Fr. Broderick's Scripture Study

Scripture Study Will Meet on November 6

Father Broderick's Scripture Study will meet on its regular first Sunday of the month, November 6 at 2:00pm in the IC Parish Center. We will read and discuss Chapters 57–61 in Part III in The Book of Isaiah. Part III, Return of the First Captives, contains oracles composed by disciples from a later period who continued the work of the great prophet.

Our beloved teacher, Father Broderick, not only explains the meaning of the Scripture passages, but also presents rich description of the period and places cited, as well as the culture and practices of the people involved. He connects the events in the New Testament to Old Testament prophecies and events, as well as to our own time. This is a worthwhile way to spend an hour and fifteen minutes on a Sunday afternoon. All are invited to attend these sessions and grow in knowledge and faith.

Daylight Saving Time

Daylight Saving Time ends next weekend. Please remember to turn your clocks back one hour.

Online Giving

Immaculate Conception Parish provides Online Giving—a convenient and safe way to make a one-time or a recurring (weekly) donation. Getting started is easy—you need to be a registered member of Immaculate Conception Parish community. Registration forms are available in the foyer of the church or at the parish office. Once you register, visit our website, hricatholic.org and click the Online Giving picture at the bottom of our home page to get to the site. It is safe and secure and you get to decide exactly when and to where your gift will be made. Any questions? Contact Linda Temple, IC Administrative Assistant 978-462-2724 x7404.

Year of Mercy

Instruct the Ignorant

“Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer everyone” (Col 4: 6).

Take a look in the mirror. Examine your conscience. Do you practice what you preach? Pope Bl. Paul VI right proclaimed, “Modern man listens more willingly to witnesses than to teachers, and if he does listen to teachers, it is because they are witnesses.”

Sharing Mercy...Sarah Swafford

Ignorant is from the Latin meaning “not knowing.” It can also mean “unlearned,” “unknown,” or even “unaware...”

In light of trying to dig deeper into this work of mercy, instruct the ignorant, I think it would be beneficial to distinguish between knowledge and wisdom. Knowledge is very important; we should have the facts and information we need to communicate the brilliant truths of our Catholic faith.

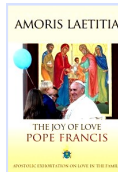

It is wisdom and faith that take knowledge and seamlessly weave it through the threads of time, history, culture and personal experience in order to help answer life’s biggest questions: “Who am I?” “What am I living for?” and “Whom am I living for?” Wisdom and faith are the anchors of human life, giving us meaning and purpose even amid the attacks of relativism, utilitarianism, and the culture of death. Wisdom and faith show us that life has a plot, a goal, and a living out this journey leads to happiness, peace and joy—both in this life and in the next.

(Beautiful Mercy: Experiencing God’s Unconditional Love so we can share it with Others, Dynamic Catholic, pp. 103, 105-107).

IC Religious Education

Amoris Laetitia...Pope Francis

Pope Francis released the Exhortation on the Family. In the weeks to come, you will be introduced to various statements from the Holy Father.

In #51—...violence within families breeds new forms of social aggression, since family relationships can also explain the tendency to a violent personality. This is often the case with families where communication is lacking, defensive attitudes predominate, the members are not supportive of one another, family activities that encourage participation are absent, the parental relationship is frequently conflictual and violent, and relationships between parents and children are marked by hostility. Violence within the family is a breeding ground of resentment and hatred in the most basic human relationships.

Religious Education Classes

School Year Registration is ongoing. Classes: Oct 30 and Nov 6 and 7. No class: Monday, October 31.

Planning Study Survey

Holy Redeemer Parish has been committed to being a living presence of Jesus Christ, through the proclamation of the Word of God, the celebration of the Sacraments, and the lives of our vibrant faith community. While our parish has been blessed with great vitality, the buildings in which we celebrate our faith need refurbishment.

We would like to make you aware of a parish-wide Planning Study to formulate a strategy for addressing some needed improvements to our parish facilities. Both St. Ann's Church and The Church of the Nativity have a number of deferred maintenance issues and other possible projects that need our attention.

Careful consideration and thoughtful planning is required for us to move forward. This is why input from our parishioners is of the utmost importance at this time. Your opinions and suggestions will enable us to formulate a final plan that will help meet the needs of our entire parish.

During the next several weeks, every registered member on our mailing list will be contacted and asked to take part in a study process to be conducted by Cornerstone Fundraising, a professional religious fundraising firm. Members of the Cornerstone team will be conducting one-on-one personal interviews with randomly selected families and individuals of the parish, parish-wide focus groups, and a direct mail survey to every registered household.

Please make every effort to participate in the survey process so that we may complete this study with your open and honest input.

Thank you for your continued support.
