

HOLY REDEEMER AND IMMACULATE CONCEPTION
COLLABORATIVE PARISHES

SERVING MERRIMAC, NEWBURY, NEWBURYPORT, AND WEST NEWBURY

First Sunday of Advent

November 27, 2016

All Are Welcome

*"You know the time; it is the hour now for you to awake from sleep. For our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed; the night is advanced, the day is at hand. Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light."
(Rom 13: 11-12)*

RCIA

RCIA is a program for those over the age of 7 who wish to become Catholic. RCIA meets weekly at 10:15 in the Youth Ministry Room at the IC Parish Center. If you are interested in learning more about this program, contact Marin at 978-462-2724 ext. 7411 or fortune@newburyportcatholic.org.

From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

I'm not really a morning person. One of the things that I don't like about being a priest is that so much happens in the morning: early morning Mass, morning meetings, the early start of our school, and occasional call to the hospital....

You would think by now, after 25 years of ministry, that I would be used to it all. Maybe that is why God invented coffee. Don't talk to me until I've had a cup or two....

In my spare time, I have enjoyed amateur photography as a hobby. My friends all make fun of me for all of the sunset pictures I've taken over the years. I've got gigabytes and gigabytes worth sitting on my hard drive. Some are truly postcard-worthy. Many are just archived because I cannot resist snapping away when the sun starts its daily dip toward the horizon. But I have so few sunrise pictures.

Again, maybe it is because I'm just not a morning person, but it may also have to do with what St. Paul refers to in his Letter to the Romans: the drowsiness our body clocks inflict on us. Particularly in these late fall days, sometimes it takes a small nuclear device to rouse many of us from our slumber to be about the start of our day in the pre-dawn darkness.

In many ways, this is precisely the experience of Advent. To be awake and struggling to see the light that will assuredly come on the horizon. To be cloaked in darkness, but eagerly seeking the light. To be waiting with anticipation for the first rays of the sun. When the sky begins its ever-so-subtle shift from pitch darkness to the very first hues of the deepest dark violet blue, we know that so much more is to come. When the sun finally bursts above the horizon, its dazzling display is enough to make even the grumpiest of us pause and smile. A new day brings new hope and the promise of new opportunities and life.

In the Church, this brief season of Advent reminds us that Christ is coming into the world. He is the light of the world, and as disciples, we must be watching and waiting for even the faintest glimpse of that light on the horizon. We cannot do that if we are slumbering. We must be awake and alert to welcome the dawn. To this end, we are invited at the beginning of Advent every year to examine how we are living our lives and whether there are any changes that need to be made to better welcome Christ when He comes. It's not simply a quick touch-up before Christmas, but an honest assessment of whether we are really ready to see the Lord when He returns. Advent has this two-fold character: to prepare for the celebration of Christ's first coming at Christmas, and to prepare for His Second Coming on a day and at a time we do not know.

Parish Membership

Welcome all newcomers to our Collaborative! Parish Registration forms are available online at hricatholic.org.

Absent a clock, we know the dawn is at hand by the subtle shift of colors in the night sky. As Christians, we need to point out to our darkened world the sometimes understated or overlooked signs of Christ's loving and saving presence. These are never far from us, but they might need highlighting from time to time for the untrained eye. They include the gift of forgiveness among family members, the patience offered between spouses, the compassion shown to another who is suffering, the refusal to abandon hope in the face of one who is despairing, the gentle presence of a friend, the enduring example of daily prayer in the home, the little sacrifices made to help a neighbor, the generosity offered to overcome rudeness, an unwillingness to judge another, the extra effort made to see the good in one who struggles, the richness of love lavished on the one who needs a friend.

The dawning of Christ in our world will bring about as dramatic a transformation as the most vibrant sunrise ever could. But we must be awake to see and be part of it. Let's caffeine-load if we have to, but let's not miss out on the great joy and many blessings to be found in welcoming the Lord in our midst. And let's make sure not to keep this a secret among ourselves. Let's share this Good News with as many as we can, so that many more can look forward with joy to the coming of the Lord.

Advent Blessings to all,

Fr. Tim Harrison

Pastor

Cursillo/Ultreya

Cursillo is an invitation for you to experience the love of Jesus Christ on a personal level and to bring this love and joy into your daily life. The next Cursillo weekend is December 1–4 (men).

All are welcome. The next Ultreya is December 2 at 6:30 at IC St. Louis Hall. If you have questions, feel free to contact either Pat Forbes (978-462-1258) or Jonathan Temple (978-809-9337).

Celebrating the Sacraments

Reconciliation

IC: Saturdays: 3:00pm to 3:30pm or by appointment.

HR: Saturdays before the 4:00pm Mass or by appointment.

Baptism

Call the Parish Office for information and to register.

Marriage

Archdiocesan guidelines request that couples planning to marry in the Church contact the church at least six months prior to the wedding date.

Sacrament of the Sick

This Sacrament should not be seen as only administered when there is danger of death. Please call us if someone is in the hospital, so that we can visit the loved one and have the community pray for them.

HOLY REDEEMER HOLIDAY FAIR

Fair Raffle Winners

The 2016 Holiday Fair was a huge success, making over $10,000 for the Holy Redeemer Parish. Congratulations to our Raffle winners:

Arthur Bibeau,
Karen Christopher
Rita Stogryn

Thank you to everyone who donated, baked goodies, worked, and made soups. The popular crowd-pleasing soups this year were Shrimp Stir Fry made by John Mulvaney and Italian Sausage made by Bill Crouse.

Plans are underway for next year... save the date: Saturday, November 18, 2017!

Lunch, silent auction, shopping, gift baskets, raffles, and goodies: What a wonderful way to start the holiday season.

HOLY REDEEMER PARISH

Offertory Collection

Next weekend's second collection is the monthly.

Outdoor Nativity Figurines Update

We are happy to say all but three outdoor Nativity figurines were chosen off the boards to be donated by our families of Holy Redeemer.

But, only three figurine pictures and checks have been returned so far. We can't order the figurines or arrange installations at the churches until we know we can pay for them. We are concerned that we will not receive the Nativity sets by Christmas.

Please, if you took a picture of a figurine, return the picture and your check ASAP. Drop the envelope with the picture and your check in the collection basket, hand it to Father, mail to 4 Green St., Merrimac 01860 or call Cindy Quinn 978-346-0072.

HR St. Vincent de Paul

With your support, our Saint Vincent de Paul Conference has been able to deliver turkey dinners to 15 local families. Thank you very much.

If you are writing a check for us, please write the check to HR Saint Vincent de Paul. That will help expedite our banking.

Holy Redeemer Giving Trees

The Giving Trees, which will be placed in both churches at the beginning of Advent, help us aid area programs for people in need during the Christmas season.

We are currently giving to five programs: Emmaus, Inc., Haverhill, The Holiday Helper Program for the Pentucket Area, Pregnancy Care Center, Haverhill and Newburyport areas, Lazarus House Ministries, Lawrence, and our St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Some of the tags on the trees are for specific items that the groups are requesting, including toys, clothing, and food pantry items. Please return the unwrapped gifts with the tags to the churches by the weekend of December 10-11. This allows time for us to deliver them to the programs to be distributed in time for Christmas.

We ask if you take a tag and can't find the specific item, that you either return the tag to the tree as soon as possible or consider a gift card. Thank you for all your generosity in the past, present, and future. Please call Dottie Carr 978-363-2909 with questions.

HR Religious Education

Tuesday, November 29

Grade 8 class, 6-7:30pm, Merrimac

Saturday, December 3

Grade 1 Activity Day, beginning at 1:00pm in Merrimac. The parish provides water and juice boxes. Snacks would be appreciated. Please plan on attending the 4:00pm Mass with your family; it concludes our day.

New Email Address

The Office of Religious Education at Holy Redeemer has a new email address. Please change it in your contacts: reledhrp@gmail.com.

HR Parish Planning Study

We have been conducting a Parish-wide Planning Study to formulate a strategy for addressing some needed improvements to our parish facilities. Both St. Ann's Church and the Church of the Nativity have a number of deferred maintenance issues and other possible projects that need our attention.

Careful consideration and thoughtful planning is required for us to move forward. This is why input from our parishioners is of the utmost importance at this time. Your opinions and suggestions will enable us to formulate a final plan that will help meet the needs of our entire parish.

Every registered household has already been mailed a questionnaire so this study would include your valued input. The survey form is strictly confidential and no names will be attributed to any direct or indirect quotes. Please complete and return the questionnaire within 10 days. You may mail it to Holy Redeemer Parish, 4 Green Street, Merrimac, 01860, place it in the collection at Mass, or drop it off at the parish office in Merrimac.

The questionnaire is also available on-line at our parish website: www.hriccatholic.org. Please make every effort to participate in the survey process so that we may complete this study with your open and honest input.

Thank you for your continued support.

HR Prayer Shawl

Would you like to help those in need this winter without it costing you anything? Come join us at 1:00pm on Thursday, December 1, at Nativity Hall in Merrimac. We will knit/crochet hats, scarves, and mittens for Merrimack Valley Hope Mission, the group supported by our Parish youth. We will provide yarn, knitting needles and crochet hooks, and patterns. We can even teach you to knit/crochet. Can't make it on December 1? Gather your own group at a time convenient for you, give us a call, and we'll provide you with everything you'll need.

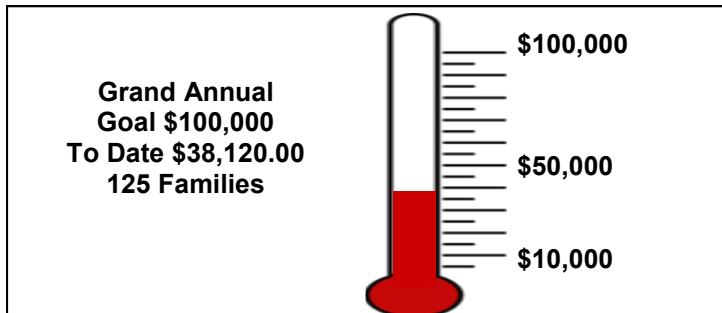

If you need information or a blessed prayer shawl, they are free, please call Helen Kelley, 978-771-4673, Connie Cormier, 978-363-2020, Terry Duhamel 978-384-8099.

Community Service of Newburyport

During the month of November, Immaculate Conception Church is collecting food for the pantry at Community Service. Any non-perishable food and personal care products would be greatly appreciated. They especially need spaghetti sauce, cereal, peanut butter, jelly, coffee, cookies, and crackers. Please check the expiration dates on these products. Personal care products that are needed include shampoo, toothpaste, deodorant, soap, and toilet paper. Please leave the items in the church foyer. Thank you for your generosity.

The Compassionate Friends

The Compassionate Friends of Greater Newburyport provides support for bereaved families after the loss of a child, grandchild or sibling—any age, any cause.

Our monthly support meetings are held in Room 209 of the IC Parish Center at 7:30–9:00pm on the fourth Monday of the month. The next meeting is November 28.

We host an Annual Memorial Candle Lighting on the second Sunday of December. This year it will be Sunday, December 11 from 7:00–8:00pm, followed by refreshments and an optional discussion. The candle lighting event will be held at TCF chapter leader Barbara Hopkinson's home, 64 Northern Blvd, Plum Island, Newbury. 978-697-1349 or barhop@comcast.net for questions.

Immaculate Conception School

Dear Friends,

The Christmas season is officially underway, and I can feel the spirit all around me. Nowhere is this spirit blazing more brightly than among the many volunteers who come together to prepare for our annual North Pole

Express (NPE), taking place this Saturday, December 3rd.

For sixteen years, the Immaculate Conception School (IC) has produced this spectacular event. Over 350 volunteers including teachers, faculty, students and parents, alumni and local residents join together, giving their time and talents to create the enchanting atmosphere that brings families back year after year.

Father Tim and I will be among the 35 “readers” sharing the story of the The Night Before Christmas to the over 3,700 riders on their way to the North Pole. Two hundred and fifty gallons of cocoa will be prepared and distributed by 105 food servers. Other volunteers include 35 conductors, 30 merchandise salespeople, 30 platform managers, 32 decorators, 30 ticket scanners, 3 musicians, 3 sound technicians, 35 cleaners, 8 characters and 75 elves! This event requires approximately 7,000 volunteer hours—a remarkable example of how our community comes together in love and spirit.

The proceeds from this event, along with the generous donations of our school sponsors and in-kind contribution, help to defray the cost of tuition for students attending the IC. We are so grateful for this support.

I want to thank everyone for their commitment of time, talent, and enthusiasm, especially Tara McQuaid and Bianca Riethmueller, chairs of this event. The North Pole Express is a truly magical experience for children and parents alike!

Sincerely, Mary Reardon, Principal

New England Tenors

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul of Immaculate Conception will sponsor an upcoming concert. The New England Tenors will be performing at IC Church on Sunday, November 27 at 2:00pm. Don't miss these talented tenors. As in past years, they will be sharing the program with some of our IC choirs. Hopefully we will have some surprise guests joining the choirs.

Tickets will be on sale at the door. Make plans to begin the Advent and Christmas season with joyful harmony.

IC Knitting Ministry

We meet every Tuesday from 1:00–3:00pm at the IC Parish Center, Room 209 to knit prayer shawls, hats, mittens, and scarves for the sick and their caregivers and to celebrate happy occasions. We have made and distributed hats and scarves to the hundreds of homeless children in our area. Come help us keep these boys and girls warm this winter and to send joy to our friends experiencing illness. Membership is open to all. No experience necessary. If you know anyone who needs a prayer shawl or for more information, call Frances Ronan, 978-462-4972 or Julia O'Connor, 978-465-3350.

IC Christmas Flowers

We are taking monetary donations and memorials for the purchase of flowers for the church for the Christmas season. You can find envelopes in the IC church for your donations. It is helpful if you do not have flowers delivered to the church but allow us to purchase them. The deadline for donations is December 12 by noon.

IC Religious Education

Amoris Laetitia...Pope Francis

Pope Francis released the Exhortation on the Family. In the weeks to come, you will be introduced to various statements from the Holy Father.

Jesus Restores and Fulfills God's Plan—In #66—"The covenant of love and fidelity lived by the Holy Family of Nazareth illuminate the principle which gives shape to every family, and enables it better to face the vicissitudes of life and history. On this basis, every family, despite its weakness, can become a light in the darkness of the world. Nazareth teaches us the meaning of family life, its loving communion, its simple and austere beauty, its sacred and inviolable character. May it teach how sweet and irreplaceable is its training, how fundamental and incomparable its role in the social order (Paul VI, Address in Nazareth, 5 January 1964).

Forgive Offenses Willingly

"Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, with all malice, and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you" (Eph 4: 31-32).

The Our Father is an incredibly powerful prayer. It is also full of wisdom. Pray it slowly, and let the words "forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us" sink deep into your heart.

Fr. James Mallon...Scandalous Mercy

When we receive mercy, we are filled with mercy and will be merciful. There is no shortcut. The key to being free of hurt, resentment, bitterness, and unforgiveness, the key to living out the spiritual work of mercy of forgiving all injuries is to cry out to God for mercy for our own sins and to experience the scandalous, unjust, lavish, outrageous mercy of God. When we experience this at the depth of our being it will utterly transform us. Our attempts to hold on to past grievances and harden our hearts to those who have caused us injury will seem to be mere comedy. Indeed, when we contemplate our injuries and those who inflicted them upon us, we see that some may still be inexcusable, but none will be unforgiveable.
